Pioneer Life on the Bay of Quinte, 1905; The Barton Family; (paged 169 - 171)

"Samuel H. Barton, the Canadian pioneer, was the son of Phineas Barton, who married Elizabeth Hersey, a native of Schenectady, N.Y. He came to Canada and married Margaret, daughter of John P. and Nancy Meyers Burdett. The Burdetts were of French extraction, being Huguenots, from Rochelle. One, Francis Burdett, went to England and was knighted; the brother of Sir Francis was the great grandfather of Samuel H. Barton's wife.

"Samuel H. Barton had three children, born in New York State. He came to Canada at the suggestion of his brother-in-law, Guilliame Demorest, making his way by batteaux from Sackett's Harbor to Kingston, and from Kingston to Conger's Mill, near Picton. He was a hatter, and worked at his trade for a few years in Demorestville, but he soon relinquished this occupation to accept a position as Clerk of the Council, succeeding James Cotter. Then he became Clerk of the Council as well, and road surveyor and road master. During some thirty years, he was so well and so remuneratively employed, that he found no time to perform other than the public business of the municipality, and, when he died, at an advanced age, his son, Ira B., was appointed to the office that had been held by his father.

"The talents of Ira B. Barton were of a high order. Besides having good business talents, he had great gifts in the artistic line. He became a painter in oils, and produced pictures still in possession of the family. These are exquisite works of art, and show a boldness of execution, and, at the same time, a delicacy of coloring, which place them in the forefront of the productions of our best Canadian artists. His subjects are all happy inspirations of choice, many of them dealing with the classic and the antique. Among his best, in the possession of Miss Margaret Barton, (his sister), are the following: "Roman Chariot Race," "Iawatha's Departure" "Lake Como" "Lake Geneva," "Arrest of John Brown." "High Shore of Mosquito Bay," "Farmer's Dock, North Port" "Chapeau de Brigand" and many others of equal merit.

"His brother, Thomas Barton, was a carriagemaker, at Demorestville, and was also highly gifted in painting and music. He frescoed the Demorestville Church, and others, and painted some very beautiful portraits, one of which, "Sultana," is a gem in coloring, and a poem in form.

"Stephen Barton was associated with Thomas in painting and decorating. The remainder of the family, except Miss Margaret Barton, settled in Chicago; Jesse, son of Samuel Barton, occupies a leading place in the municipal law department, and his brother is a trusted employee of the First National Bank."

He married Margaret Burdett #67620, b. c. 1787 in Schenectady, New York, USA,⁹ (daughter of John P. Burdett #73229 and Nancy Meyers #73230), d. 10 February 1873 in Demorestville, Prince Edward County, Ontario,¹⁰ buried in Demorestville Cemetery, Sophiasburgh, Prince Edward County, Ontario.¹¹

Ann's 1875 death certificate gives her birthplace as "Ballston Spa"... The Registrar for Sophiasburgh was Ira BARTON at the time, so it's likely that the death information is accurate...
