Ichabod was born and raised in Massachusetts where he married Lydia MOTT. The couple had six children. After Lydia's death, Ichabod married Jane Richmond, having an additional twelve (some records suggest fourteen) children.

Note that the birth dates of the first three children have been converted to the Gregorian calendar dates reflecting the adoption of that calendar September 1752. Nonetheless, many individuals were slow to conform to the new calendar, and consequently some birthdates may be incorrectly recorded.

The family moved from Massachusetts to Dutchess County, New York in about 1744.

GEN-BOW-001-2, Merton Yarwood Williams

Ichabod's will states that his estate was to be divided equally amongst his children, except for Timothy, David and Thomas, who were to receive five shillings each, "and no more". Witnesses to the will were Daniel HAIGHT and Josiah BULL, Jnr.

from MAGRC GEN-BOW-001-2, Merton Yarwood Williams

Vincent Bowerman recollections:

"During the Revolution he remained attached to the King's party and as soon as peace was proclaimed he came to Canada in the year 1783 or '84, and married Sarah Vincent and settled on the North Shore if the little lake [East Lake, Lot 3], but he soon left it and moved over to the West Lake shore [South side, Lot 5] and there I was born on the 21st of 5th mo. 1791. My mother died when I was a day or two old. I was placed under the care of Daniel and Elizabeth Pettit where I remained until I was two years old, at which time my father went to Dutchess County and returned with his second wife, Maturah, a daughter of Josiah and Mehitabel Bull Married 4th mo. 4th 1793). Then he moved over on the north shore of West lake and took me with him and settled on Lot No. 1 first concession military tract containing about 230 acres of entire wild land bought of Major Henry Young for about $100, and built a log house 20 x 22 feet down by the spring south of the road where he lived until about the year 1806, when he built the frame two story house 30 x 40 feet, which stood until 1871 when taken down by the present owner William S. Hubbs and Abraham Saylor. He used a log barn for eight or nine years. He built a frame barn in the year 1800.

"He frequently let out three year old cattle to be broke and return them at the age of seven, and heifers the same way; on their return he sold them and bought land. He continued buying until he had got twelve hundred acres beside the homestead. He went to Quebec in the year 1810, with a raft of [30 or 40,00 oak] staves and was taken sick on his return home at Montreal with Typhoid fever, and died at Kingston [Aug. 28, 1810]. He was brought home and buried in the old Friends burying ground by C.G. Bowerman's [Bowerman Hill between Bloomfield and Wellington], leaving me at the age of nineteen to manage all the business."

1791: (date approximate) After death of Ichabod, the remaining family immigrated to Prince Edward County, where they settled around Bloomfield.

1793: Landed at Picton with Spencer Party of settlers who included Samuel WILLIAMS, father of Platt WILLIAMS, William CUNNINGHAM Sr., Jonathan BOWERMAN and his two younger brothers Israel and Judah. Jonathan settled Lot 10, Con 2. Military Tract in Hallowell and established first a saw mill, then a grist mill in Lower Bloomfield, just north of the Danforth Road. This mill adjoined the property of Stephen FERGUSON's tannery, and became known as Morgan's Mill. It was destroyed by fire, and the dam removed. (date?)

Jonathan was also in partnership with John BULL, and built a mill just south of the road separating Concession 1 and 2, near the side road between lots 8 and 9. The actual location of the mill is speculative, but may be just south of the present Quaker Cemetery in Bloomfield at the location of the present Bloomfield Mill Pond.

1804: Accepted under Friend's Care. Note that only three children are mentioned...

Settled in Bloomfield, Prince Edward County, Ontario

1851: Age shown as 83 in Hallowell Township census... (born c 1768).

Extracted from MAGRC GEN-BOW-001-2, Merton Yarwood Williams, Bowerman Genealogy

"Nursed and cared for by kind neighbours, Daniel and Elizabeth Pettit (who used a sap trough hewn from a bass-wood log for a cradle), Vincent was two years of age when his father brought home his step-mother, Maturah Bull, from the ancestral home, Dutchess County, N.Y. She proved a true mother and as her own children were born, Vincent became the eldest of a large family.

"Vincent went to school "when there was school" until he was able to work.

" I being the eldest, Father having no other help, I was put to it pretty young. I do not think I ploughed any until 13 or 14. Father built the new house in the year 1806 and I was 15 that summer. The winter before, I helped cut and saw logs ... Samuel Clapp ... and I cut and helped load about 100. Father drew them to ... Uncle Ichabod's sawmill... The next summer I drew stone to stone the cellar and burn lime and tend mason, I was 15 that spring. I do not think I went to school any except a little in the winter when I was 12 years old. After I was 16 Father generally kept a hired man and I worked with him most of the time. In the summer of 1809, I helped chop and clear 18 acres of new land and it was all sowed with wheat that Fall. After the sowing was done... they sent the men away to the River Trent and that was the beginning of the Lumber scrape... Father managed to get his spring crop in before the raft went away, then I was left home with a young man... to work the farm and take care of the hay and harvest... with another man to help us and I think we hired some more, we got the hay and wheat all in good season and in good condition, summer-fallowed and sowed I think about 20 acres with wheat."

"After the death of Thomas Bowerman in Kingston on August 28th 1810 while returning from his lumber venture in Quebec, Vincent shared fully the responsibility of the family with his step-mother. Thomas' brother, Gideon, also engaged in the lumber trade, came home late in the autumn and fell ill with fever which he contracted in Quebec. All winter long the epidemic lasted. Vincent lost an aunt, his sister Phoebe, and many died in the community. Vincent nursed the sick, even sleeping in the same room with his Uncle Gideon, who finally died at the home of his brother Stephen. Vincent survived and helped in the oversight of none half-brothers and sisters and 1430 acres of land."

"Genealogical List of the Bull Family of the County of Prince Edward, Ontario", Dr. A.C. Bowerman, 1904."

"The family of Stephen moved to Battle Creek, Michigan. They were married at the "Big White House" on the same day (Friday, 18th September, 1818) on which were married William GARRETT (brother of Phoebe) and Patience Bull, and Townsend Garrett and Sally Bowerman. That was an occasion not to be overlooked; it was an early "triple-alliance," and demanded ratification by the assembled neighbourhood, in the collective capacity of and old-times charivari. That event was authentically stated by "the oldest inhabitant" never to have been surpassed for the extravagant invention of furious fun and frolic. The vestibule Pullmans in which the newly contracted parties began their wedding tours consisted of heavy farm waggons without springs, and furnished with large waggon chairs. When these had been taken apart and replaced in proper shape upon the ground - for the charivaring party had placed them astride the barn roof - they were free to pursue their journey over the corduroy roads leading to their various residences near Wellington, then the township of Ameliasburg. "

"Genealogical List of the Bull Family of the County of Prince Edward, Ontario", Dr. A.C. Bowerman, 1904."

"Thomas (called "Big Tommy"), who lived for the greater part of his life on the town line between Hallowell and Hillier, near a country church, which still bears the name of "Bowerman's Church." In keeping with the family proclivity for magnificent visions, Thomas offered to "give the land, grade the road, and furnish the ties" for a section of the Grand Trunk Railway to be built through Prince Edward. Though a great undertaking, it would have been a profitable investment, and showed greater speculative foresight than many of his followers".

Disowned JUL 1845.

Was one of the first seine fishermen on the Wellington Beach, and partnered with Justice FOX of Pulaski, New York who brought the first seine used in this fishery. FOX visited regularly for the September run of whitefish. The second seine, longer than the Fox-Blount seine, was owned by Samuel Cole; it was 80 rods in length, and was in operation from 1826 to 1828 and later. This type of seine fishing was a leading factor in the destruction of the valuable whitefish industry in Lake Ontario, James Johnson of Athol partnered with Samuel Cole, and operated a curing ground on the Sandbanks for salting and barreling whitefish for the Rochester market.

Lived in Hallowell Township until about 1848, then moved west to Whitby, then to Wisconsin, United States of America.

Levi was an Elder in the West Lake Monthly Meetings (Quakers)

1871: Lived with parents.

MAGRC, GEN-BOW-001-2, Merton Yarwood Williams, (page 33),

"in the winter of 1895-6 Grandfather Williams, aided by Grandfather Bowerman, built a camp and boat-house on the Sand Bank shore midway between Wellington and West Point. This camp gave access to both Lake Ontario and West Lake and provided a retreat for Grandfather Williams where he indulged in his hobby of net fishing. It was greatly enjoyed also by his grandsons on holidays. The camp was only accessible (except at very low water) by a five mile row through the length of West Lake from the mouth of Trout Creek. This boat ride was in itself an adventure, especially when against the prevailing westerly winds."

Hugh:

1871: Charles SPROUL (sic), 13 lived with the family.

At death of daughter Emily in 1931, Hugh's birthplace is shown as "Scotland"...but at death of son Allan, he is shown to have been born in Glengarry County. In the 1851 census, his birthplace is shown as "Lower Canada"

"Pioneer Life on the Bay of Quinte", 1904; suggests that the family came from Scotland and settled in Glengarry.

Hugh was NOT connected, as far as can be determined, with the Block H, Hallowell Township McDonald family. However, it's probably unwise to discount the idea that Hugh was born "in transit" from New Brunswick. This needs further research!

1851: Family lived in Hallowell Township. Note that Hugh is stated to have been born in "L Canada"

1861: He and wife Lydia are found, but names of children do not all correspond with census entries... that may be because many children assumed "middle" names later in life...

George:

George killed his wife then committed suicide, less than three months after their marriage.

From an unidentified newspaper clipping:

"George Rochefort, aged 78, shot his wife, aged 65, and himself in Bad Axe last Tuesday afternoon. They had been married only three months and property belonging to his wife is said to be the animus for the shooting., because she would not give it to the husband. Rochefort pretended to be sick that day and had his wife bring him his dinner upstairs where he lay in bed. When Mrs. Rochefort's granddaughter came from school, she found Rochefort dead and Mrs Rochefort nearly so with no chance of recovery."

John:

The Annual Monitor for 1896, Quaker Published Memorials

"John T. Dorland was the son of John T. and Mary Ann Dorland, elders of West Lake Monthly Meeting, Canada. He was born in the village of Wellington, Ontario, on the 8th of the Third month, 1860. The youngest child of a family of seven, some of whom were grown up at the time of his birth, from his infancy he awakened a deep interest in those about him, and at an early age the impression was made upon his mother's heart that the Lord would call this one of her children to engage in His service as a Minister of the Gospel. The loving care of three grown-up sisters in his father's home had much to do with the moulding of his character, and his childhood became a time of seed-sowing that in after years brought forth an abundant increase.

"Amidst the beautiful surroundings and quiet of his native village, which is pleasantly situated upon the shores of Lake Ontario, he grew from childhood to youth, having at one time a strong desire to follow a literary career, but subsequently determining to engage in the study of law. Neither of these professions, however, were to be his life work. At a very tender age he manifested a deep interest in the Bible, and in the First-day school which he attended as a little child he was able, apparently with but little effort, to remember and repeat long passages of Scripture. But notwithstanding his many natural gifts, and the fact of his careful home training, he was soon made conscious of the need of having his heart opened to the Saviour's love., There were times when he felt he must surrender to these visitations of Divine love, and when he was under deep conviction; but unwillingness to trust fully, and a fear that if he were converted he would have to go abroad as a missionary, prevented his finding the rest and peace that come from God when the life is given up in whole-hearted surrender to Him. So the years passed until he was seventeen years of age, when the death of a beloved friend, his brother-in-law, Seburn Dorland, made a lasting impression upon him. This faithful servant of his Lord had come from the United States, hoping that the lake air would benefit his health; and his beautiful life and loving ministry were often afterwards spoken of by John Dorland as amongst the great blessings of his life. By the side of his open grave the silent prayer went up that his life might become such as his brother-in-law's had been - a prayer that has now had its gracious answer and remarkable fulfilment in the completed course of his own life, so full of the Divine blessing.

"Although these solemn calls and seasons of deep conviction had their marked influence, months passed before the light broke in and made John Dorland a new man in Christ Jesus. The desire to fit himself for the profession of his choice, the strong claims of his natural ambition to excel, and the day dreams of his boyhood, all had to be surrendered. There was before him no middle course. Christ must have all. Terrible though the ordeal seemed to all the pride of his buoyant young manhood, and sore the grief he felt to cause disappointment to some he loved, who shared the desire that he might follow the profession of his choice (in which doubtless he would have gained distinction), when the power of Divine grace brought the issues clearly home to his heart, his choice was made with a childlike trust, a singular steadfastness of purpose, and a single-hearted desire to be and to do all that God required of him. Humbly yielding to the divine will there came at once to his life much of the joyous and attractive power of grace, that made him such an honoured witness for his Lord. The work of his testimony began at once, and at Pickering College he was the means of influencing many of the students to become Christians, and "where," writes one of his friends of his boyhood, "he was admired by them for his straight-forward, upright Christian life."

"After leaving college John T. Dorland engaged in teaching for a time, but was soon called upon to relinquish this, as well as preparation for his chosen profession, and to go forth in the service of the Gospel. Great blessing attended even the very first of these journeys, and many conversations resulted. In the first neighbourhood visited, a meeting house where there had been no regular meeting was re-opened, and some time afterwards two further meetings were started in the same district. As the year 1881 was growing to a close, at the age of twenty-one, his gift to the ministry was acknowledged by his Monthly Meeting, and on the 18th of First month, 1882, he became a recorded minister.

"At this time an important change in his life took place. This was his marriage, on the 29th of Twelfth month, 1881, to Lavinia Hubbs, the daughter of William S. and Margaret Hubbs, of Bloomfield. Shortly before this John Dorland had accepted a business engagement with Elias Rogers, a Friend of Toronto, and in the newly -established meeting in that city, his ministry was continued and much blessed towards the building up and strengthening of the work that had been begun after the visit to Canada of Walter Morris. After residing for about a year in Toronto, John T. and Lavinia Dorland, with their infant daughter Margaret, removed to Brooklyn, U.S., which became their home for a couple of years. Here his time was fully taken up with his Gospel labours and visits to other Yearly Meetings, including his own in Canada. Visiting this in 1883 he met Isaac Sharp, Alfred Wright and other friends who were present from other Yearly Meetings. Already his character was distinguished by the exercise in large measure of the gracious influence of a controlled and spirit-filled life, which was the more manifest amidst the somewhat disturbed conditions that then existed in Canada; and already he had also begun to feel the burden of service for other lands. At this time an intimation came to him through one of the Friends attending the Yearly Meeting, of service that would be required of him over the sea, in which service he has since laid down his life.

"After leaving Brooklyn, where he had resided for a considerable time, he removed to Cleveland, Ohio, and found there, as elsewhere, that the work to which he was called fully occupied his time. Many were gathered to Christ through his faithful ministry, before the time came when it was made clear to him that he must visit England. Having obtained a minute for service here, he arrived in this country in time to attend in succession the Yearly Meetings of Dublin and London in the year 1888.

"For a couple of years John Dorland's family continued to reside in Wellington, Canada while he pursued his labours, visiting meetings, adult schools &c., throughout this country. A deepened interest in our own meetings, especially amongst our younger members, was the result of this labour that became apparent almost everywhere. To may also his ministry was a call to surrender to Christ, while to others it was an awakening to a more consecrated service. In the year 1889 his wife joined him for a short time in these labours, and he returned with her on a visit to his family in Canada.

"During this visit he attended Canada Yearly Meeting, in which he was appointed Clerk. Returning to England, he continued his labours under his minute from Canada Yearly Meeting, until early in the year 1890, when a trip he had long desired to make to the East was undertaken in company with J. Allen Baker. The journey extended to Egypt, Palestine, Syria, Constantinople and Athens, occupying several months, and proving one of the deepest interest to John Dorland. Not long after his return, he felt it right to remove his family from Canada to England, and for this purpose he again visited Canada at its next Yearly Meeting, which proved to be a larger meeting than had gathered for some years. It was no small trial for John Dorland to leave his aged parents and his home on this occasion, and it proved the last time he was to see the face of his father, as his decease had taken place before John Dorland's next return to Canada. But his call to England being clear, it was ever and added comfort to him in the prosecution of his work to know how freely and fully his parents had given him up for it, and how prayerfully they followed him in it.

"In a letter from Wellington, just before he sailed with his family, he wrote - "They want me to come to Cleveland, but I can see nothing but England!... This is home, and only His call could take me from it. My dear parents are so sweet about our going... For all I dread to leave, there is such a joy in the prospect of taking up my work in England. I trust God is preparing me for it in a larger measure also. Oh for His power in saving and sanctifying."

"It was the autumn of the year 1890 that John Dorland brought his family to England, settling at "Densbrook", Willesden Junction, London, which continued to be his permanent home until the time of his decease. The range of his work was now extended, taking in a largely increased number of engagements in connection with adult schools and mission centres, while at the same time continuing the specific work for which he had obtained his minute from Canada Yearly Meeting. When he had fully completed what he felt to be required of him under this minute, for a couple of years he employed part of his time under a business engagement with Joseph Baker & Sons of London. This work was not allowed to interfere with his continuing his gospel labours, for which he was free to absent himself at any time; and series of meetings, conventions, addresses, etc., continued to largely occupy him. It was under this engagement that he went to Chicago in the year 1893, remaining for several months during the time of the Exhibition. While thus engaged in business, he there found acceptable service with the Chicago Friends' Meeting, as expressed by a very cordial minute of that Meeting. During this visit to America he also had the opportunity of visiting New York Yearly Meeting.

"Upon returning from England his whole time was again devoted to religious and philanthropic work. When the Friends' First-day School Association was re-organized, and it became necessary to have a Secretary able to devote considerable time to the work, attending Annual Meetings, Conferences, etc., John T. Dorland accepted this post. During the last year and a quarter of his life he was also Editor of "One and All," the magazine of the Association, being also a frequent contributor to the "Friend," and for a considerable time responsible for the issue of the Friends' Christian Fellowship Union Monthly Circular; and being actively engaged in promoting the establishment of branches and strengthening the work of that Union, his time was very closely occupied, and much of it necessarily spent away from home.

"In every department his work was characterized by forcible clearness, sound judgement, and rich spiritual power; and his life in a remarkable manner exemplified the effective influence of the large-hearted Christian, faithful to his convictions as a thorough Friend. He felt that we could put no limitations upon the work and operation of the Holy Spirit, and "magnified his office," or, as expressed in the revised version, like Paul, he "glorified his ministry."

"About seven months before his death he took an extended journey to the East on religious service, in company with his wife and Lucy E. and Mary E. Mouncey. This trip but deepened his interest in Egypt, Palestine, and the countries he had visited before, and his sympathies were greatly increased and feelings aroused on behalf of the Armenians. Many interesting addresses were given by him on the Eastern lands.

"Few who ever came in contact with John Dorland but were impressed with his only too rare combination of profound earnestness with a bright, joyous, and hopeful Christian character. The news of his death after a few days' illness, passed as a great shock, not only throughout this country, but wherever he had been known.

"John T. Dorland left a widow and four children - two sons and two daughters - one of the latter being born in England. In the Eighth month last Lavinia H. Dorland and her family returned to Wellington, Ontario, Canada.

"It was from attendance at the last and most encouraging Annual Meeting of the Friends' First-day School Association, held at Bristol, that John T. Dorland returned to London with a slight cold; and attending the Quarterly Meeting at Devonshire House, took a further chill. Seeming to be partially recovered he proceeded to Manchester to attend some meetings of the Friends' Christian Fellowship Union and the Byrom Street Adult School. Although more ill than he appeared, he felt that he must attend the first of these - the F.C.F.U. Meeting, into which the whole of his concern seemed to centre. The meeting was a time of very manifest blessing and outpouring of the Holy Spirit. John Dorland spoke with great power, faithfully delivering the message committed to him; and the address given in that last meeting will long be remembered by many besides those who were privileged to be present. Within an hour after its conclusion he was prostrated in much pain and suffering of the late William Brockbank, "Brockhurst," Didsbury, near Manchester, and was never able to rise again. He was joined by his wife, and a day or two later by J. Allen Baker, from London. The most skilful physicians and trained nurses were in attendance night and day, and every possible means that generous hospitality and tender solicitude could provide were freely employed to save his life, but all in vain. One week from the time of his last meeting, as the sun of a new day was breaking in through the trees in front of the mansion where he lay, he peacefully passed to his eternal rest. His wish, expressed some years before, that he might die in harness was granted; and in the hours of consciousness his expressions of peace and joy in the prospect of being with his Lord were very precious to those who heard them. No dying words were needed to witness the reality and blessedness of a spirit-filled life such as his; and the self-denial and singular devotion which characterised its entire course will long remain a monument and testimony to the praise of Him who has now called His faithful servant from the service of earth to the higher service of Heaven."

James:

Settled in Picton, Prince Edward County, Ontario

The Dorland Family (Pioneer Life on the Bay of Quinte, 1904; pages 966 - 970)

"Susan Ferguson married, October 18th, 1857, James North Carter, who established himself at Picton and engaged in the hardware business. In such esteem was he held as a manager of public affairs that he was elected Mayor of Picton for four or five terms, and, in each case, save one, was returned by acclamation. He began life as a poor boy with two chums, Mackenzie Bowell, printer's devil, and John A. MacDonald, law student, Kingston. Although starting life without money or education, he was so well endowed with the best faculties for the battle of life, that he retired from business, wealthy, educated, and highly respected. He died while Mayor of Picton, and the spectacle of more than one thousand citizens following his bier, and every public and private building in town, as well as every vessel in the harbor, draped in mourning, bore testimony to his worth and its universal appreciation.

"Captain James North Carter, his only surviving son, holds the appointment of Adjutant of the 16th Prince Edward Regiment. Of his efficiency as a military officer it is needless to say more than that, at the divisional camp evolutions at Niagara in 1899, he was complimented before the whole staff by General Hutton and Lieutenant Col. Vidal. Deputy Adjutant General of Militia, as the youngest officer of the force, yet as the one who handled his men with the utmost promptness and efficiency in action."

"Ransler B. Morden, great-grandson of the pioneer Joseph Morden, was born at Hallowell in 1846, and after some years spent in agricultural pursuits sold his farm and located at Picton, where he engaged in the machinery business until 1890, when he settled in Belleville, where he now resides. He was instrumental in founding the Belleville Canning Company, which is the largest canning establishments in Canada. The Bay of Quinte district has a wide reputation for fruit and vegetable growing, so that the cannery is most advantageously situated. The company cans and packs choice fruits and vegetables, their specialties being peas, corn and tomatoes. Their registered trade mark is Queen Victoria's head and bust; and their output is known as the "Queen Brand." Their immense plant has a frontage of one hundred and seventy feet, is three storeys high, has a depth of three hundred feet, and is built entirely of brick. The present firm consists of R.B. Morden and S.P. Hagerman. Mr. Morden is a Methodist and belongs to the Liberal party."

Pioneer Life on the Bay of Quinte, The Striker Family; (pages 789 - 791)

"Walter Mackenzie (held in kindly esteem by the people of Picton), came to Picton in 1851, from Train [sic., Tain, ed.], in the heather-clad Ross-shire Highlands of Scotland. He went into the office of his uncle, Walter Ross, M.P., and afterward became partner with him in his large general business. After about ten years of partnership, Mr. Mackenzie went into business on his own account, and had a successful career for a number of years. He was appointed Registrar of Deeds in 1871 and has ever since held that important office. He has been a High School Trustee for nearly twenty years, and served as chairman of the board on several occasions. Like his forefathers, he adheres to the Presbyterian church, being a member of the St. Andrew's Scottish Church in Picton. He owns a very picturesque and fine residence on Main street in Picton. His son, Gerald S.T. Mackenzie, who was at one time in the Bank of Montreal, holds the position of accountant in the Picton branch of the Metropolitan Bank. William Mackenzie's daughter, Jessie T.C., married W. Stevenson, manager of the Bank of Montreal at Fort William."

Obituary.. (date and publication unknown)

"Joseph J. Brown, a life-long resident of Bloomfield, passed away Monday, June 12. Mr. Brown had been confined to bed for five weeks.

"Mr. Brown was born on the Cronk farm, one mile from Bloomfield, August 29, 1848. His father was the late Stewart Brown, and his mother's maiden name was Katherine Corner.

"On May 18, 1865. Joseph J. Brown and Jemima White, daughter of Corne(lius) White, were married. They resided on the farm at Bloomfield, now owned by Fred Hubbs. Both were prominent members of the Society of Hicksite Friends.

"Mr. Brown was a Conservative in politics. He took an active part in municipal affairs and in 1905 he was elected as reeve of Bloomfield.

"He was a member of the Masonic fraternity.

"Mr. Brown, in his younger days, farmed on a large scale. For twenty-five years he had a 500 acre farm on which he kept a herd of forty head of dairy cattle. He also raised hops when that produce was in demand.

"He acted as an agent for several years for the J.M. Thorburn Seed Company of New York.

"Along with W.H. Gough and H. Cooper, he was instrumental in having the first rock road constructed through H...mfield.

"Besides his wife, Mr. Brown is survived by three sons and one daughter: Don Brown of Bloomfield, with whom he outlived; Dr. Sherman Brown of Poughkeepsie, N.Y.; Dr. Sanger Brown of Albany, N.Y.; and Miss Ethel Brown of New York City.

"A sister, Miss Bertha Brown, lives in New York. Two brothers and a sister predeceased him - Dr. Sanger Brown of Chicago, Dr. Willet Brown of New York, and Mrs. Ida Leavens of Bloomfield.

"The funeral took place Wednesday afternoon, Rev. Harry Parry of Wellington conducting the service. Interment made in the Hicksite Cemetery. Pall bearers were his three sons, and grandson, Joe Brown, and Edward and Howard (Leav)ens and Fred Hubbs."
