Ira:

1881: Lived with wife Roxy and Cornelia A. CHADSEY, 12, born USA. What relationship was she to the family?

From the Wellington Times, 25 October 2017; "Looking Back", by Marjorie Wiltse.

"It was an era when mysticism blended easily with religion. So it was that Ira Chadsey prepared carefully for the afterlife - in which he believed that he would return to earth as a white horse. He erected mounds of stones - cairns - around his farm as unmistakable identifying markers to his reincarnated self.

"By the time he was 77 his wife, Roxey, had been dead for seven years. The couple had produced no children. So, on one summer's day in 1905, Chadsey walked down the lane to the sugar shack eating an orange. Arriving at the small shed, he set it ablaze and watched it grow. He then shot himself in a manner so that he fell back into the flames. When the fire was extinguished, nothing remained but the barrel of a gun. And a trail of orange peels.

"The cairns remain on the farm - now known as By Chadsey's Cairns Winery. The only sightings of a white horse have been on the labels of the wine produced from the vines on Ira Chadsey's farm.

"Ira Chadsey's life and that of the woman he loved is the subject of The Chadsey Play produced by Written on the Water Theatre. It previewed in the workshop at By Chadsey's Cairns Winery in the fall of 2016."

From "A Cyclopedia of Canadian Biography", 1886, George Rose

"Henry William Branscombe, Picton, Ontario, was born at Hallowell, County of Prince Edward in 1837. His father, Arthur Branscombe, was the grandson of a British officer, who served in the war of the American revolution, and after the treaty of 1783, removed to Grand Lake, Queen's County, New Brunswick, at which place a large number of the same name still reside. Early in the present century, the grandfather and father of Mr. Branscombe removed to Hallowell, Upper Canada, and settled near what is now the village of Bloomfield.

"Arthur Branscombe married Catherine Burlingham, daughter of a U.E. loyalist, who came from Dutchess County, N.Y., at the close of the war. The Burlingham's were amongst the most successful of the old settlers of Prince Edward county, and constitute, today, one of the most extensive and respectable families in that county.

"Henry W. Branscombe was educated in his native township, and at an early age commenced the study and practice of dentistry, in which profession he has risen to the foremost rank. in 1862 he left his native town for New York city, where he practised his profession with marked success for five years. He then returned to Picton, and after a sojourn of a few years, removed to Chicago, where he remained until 1879, when he returned to Canada and permanently settled in Picton. His careful steady and industrious pursuit of knowledge, together with the deep interest he has always taken in dentistry, secured for him an honourable recognition by his professional brethren, in his election to the position of secretary to the Dental Association for Ontario. After his removal to Picton, he combined the business of chemist and druggist with that of dentistry, and has for several years successfully conducted both branches.

"In local enterprise Mr. Branscombe has been found to give a helping hand. For five consecutive years he has occupied a seat at the council board, where he has made his influence felt to a marked degree. He has for years been a director of the County Agricultural Society, and is also a treasurer of the Bay of Quinte Fire Insurance Company. He is an active member of the Methodist church, and enthusiastic worker for the cause of temperance.

"Henry W. married in 1866, Sara Elizabeth Allison , daughter of the late Rev. Cyrus Allison, whose name is familiar amongst the temperance workers who under the appellation of the Women's Christian Temperance Union have done so much of late years to arouse public opinion upon this important question".
