

Generation One

1. Simon Isaac Cole #119687.

1797: Land documents show that Simon's initial grant was unsuitable for cultivation, he then purchased land in Sophiasburgh, but requested that a replacement land grant be made in Murray Township. He was recommended for 300 acres in Murray Township.

This was confirmed by a letter from Peter Vanalstine:

"This may certify that Simon I. COLE a Loyalist and that I have known him in the British Army in the year 1777 and that with one of his sons came to this Country with the first emigration , and his son Peter went to the States from Sorel and joined his father and brother the following year and that the said Simon drew with the first draft in the township in the 5th concession found it not fit for cultivation, gave it up to the Deputy Surveyor General John Collins, Esq. and he purchased a lot and went to work thereon with his son Isaac. When Peter returned he joined his father and neither father or the two sons have drawn any land. Neither his Majesty's donation of land or his Lordships Bounty. Peter drew one hundred acres in the fourth concession of this township half of No. 13 and that last winter one of his daughters came into the country to settle with her husband and bought a farm in Sophiasburg, her name Christina COLE the wife of Richard DAVENPORT.

"Given under my hand at Adolphustown this 26th day of May 1797.

"P.V. VANALSTINE".

Historical Atlas of Hastings and Prince Edward Counties, 1878; H. Belden & Co., Toronto.

"Richard L. Lazier, Collector of Customs, was born in the village of Shannonville, in Tyendinaga, and is a son of the late Richard Lazier who came from Prince Edward County to the Shannon in 1828, and was one of the pioneer settlers of the township, his mother being a daughter of the late Thomas D. Appleby, a U.E. Loyalist, also originally from Prince Edward Co., and an early settler in Tyendinaga. The Lazier and Appleby families after the close of the war of the Revolution, in order to escape the persecutions of the arrogant continentals and enjoy the freedom of British rule and British Institutions, came to Canada and settled in Prince Edward Co., their sons afterwards settling, as already stated, in Tyendinaga.

"The Lazier family are of Dutch descent, their forefathers having originally come from Flanders, near the French border, at an early date. Jacobus Lazier, the great-great-grandfather of Richard L. Lazier was born in Yonkers, New York, in 1707, and died there in 1792. His descendants continued to reside in that vicinity until the breaking out of the Revolutionary war when the family, as above mentioned, emigrated (sic) to Canada. Mr. Lazier was appointed Collector of Customs at the Port of Shannonville in the year 1871, a position he still retains. He is also engaged in the milling business, owning the large flouring mills at Milltown. Mr. Lazier is highly esteemed by all who know him, and is distinguished for his many virtues and dignified propriety of conduct."
