The Demorest Family

"The Demorests came from the districts of Bordeaux and Picardy, where we find them distinguished for learning and zeal, and amongst the first Huguenots, against whom the wrath of both church and state were directed. Eminent alike as scholars and controversialists, they contributed largely to the theological writings that moulded Huguenot thought in the 16th and 17th centuries. We find John de Morest, a distinguished theologian, removing to Holland. With his family, early in the 17th century.

"His son David with his wife Maria Schin and family of three sons, John, David and Samuel, sailed from Amsterdam in the "Bontica," in the spring of 1663, Living two years at Staten Island and thirteen at Harlem, in the spring of 1678 they settled at Hackensack, N.J., where they had purchased three thousand acres of land. The father died in 1693. John and Samuel, the oldest and youngest sons of David Demorest married sisters named Dremin, and eleven children were born to each couple. David, the son of David and grandson of David and Maria Schin, was born February 19th, 1666; he married April, 1797, Sarah, daughter of Rev. William Bertholf, of Hackensack, and died in 1768. His son James married Marty Denyer. Another son, John Demorest, born in Rockland Co., N.Y., married Catherine Lazier, and after living in Orange County, ultimately settled in Dutchess County, where they died. One of their sons, - Guilliame Demorest - born February 16th, 1769, in Orange County, ultimately settled in Dutchess County, whence he emigrated (sic) to Canada. He came by way of the Mohawk Valley and crossed the lake in a small sailing craft to Adolphustown, where he taught school for two years, and where, in 1793, he married Jane Davis, daughter of Robert and Elizabeth Davis, of Adolphustown. The newly wedded couple moved to Prince Edward County in the spring of 1794, having purchased the previous year, from the Government, lots 38 and 39, 1st concession of Sophiasburg. Here a village soon sprang up and was named after its founder, Demorestville.

"Here our Pioneer in due course of time built a grist mill, a sawmill, a linseed oil mill and a church. Although his family - thoroughly indoctrinated in the Presbyterian faith by a long line of Huguenot ancestors - still held by the church for which they had given up home and fortune, Guilliame Demorest presented the church and the lot on which it stood to the Methodists, who were then, as now, numerically the strongest body in Sophiasburg. Later on, the pioneer was admitted into that body, and for many years before his death, was one of the ablest preachers in Prince Edward County. He received a magistrate's commission, and 'Squire Demorest was in the beginning of the last century the leading man in the most progressive settlement on the Bay of Quinte. A detailed story of his life would be the history of the early settlement of Sophiasburg.

"His first wife, Elizabeth Davis, bore him five children. The eldest of these was Catherine, born 1794, who married and educated young Englishman of good family - Eratus (sic) Howard - a union that blending as it did the best blood of England and France - gave a long list of distinguished names to the learned professions in Canada. This family not only furnishes to Methodism a fine church edifice, but many clergymen as well: Thomas Demorest, Nathan H. Howard and his brother Eratus (sic) S.; Thompson Howard and his brother E.E. Howard, and Fred Howard, a son of the latter; Valentine Rightmeyer, and Dr. E. Badgley; and Miss Althea (Dolly) Howard, who is engaged in evangelistic work. Nor has Methodism alone drawn from this rich stock of talent. The English Church, the Bar of two provinces, the Bench of the State of Iowa (Judge Thomas Giverson), the medical and teaching professions have all been enriched by the broad culture and tolerant spirit of many descendants of the truth-loving old Huguenot professor, John de Morest. After the death of his first wife in 1813, Guilliame Demorest married Hannah Burdette, of Kingston, a lady also of noble Huguenot descent, who bore him David, Mary Ann, Margaret and Rachel. Our pioneer died at Demorestville in 1849."

From "Pioneer Life on the Bay of Quinte", 1904; pages 39 - 40

"Thomas J. Howard, son of Eratus (sic) Howard and Catherine Demorest, left home, at the age of fifteen years, to serve his apprenticeship as a harness maker in Wellington, where he remained five years, and in the fall of 1850 started in business for himself in Frankford. The following spring he married Miss Harriet Huyck. After five years in the harness business, owing to failing health, he sold out. On recovering his health, Mr. Howard opened a dry goods store in Frankford; and in 1870 removed his business to Wellington, where he still trades and prospers - having been in business for fifty-four years without experiencing "either fire or failure". In 1858 Mr. Howard was appointed a Justice of the Peace for the County of Hastings. The years following were marked by much litigation consequent on the enforcement of the Dunkin Act; Mr. Howard made it an unvarying rule to listen to no complaints from drunken men, and always counselled settlement of trifling disputes without recourse to the courts.

"At the age of 17 years Mr. Howard became a member of the Methodist Church - was chosen class leader in 1851 - and has been a member of the Quarterly Board almost continuously for the last half century. In 1903, when he spoke of retiring on account of infirmities, he was by a unanimous vote elected a life member of the Board."
