The Dorland Family (Pioneer Life on the Bay of Quinte, 1904; pages 966 - 970)

"This celebrated family has been indigenous to the Western World for nearly three hundred years. The Dorlands to be found in the Bay of Quinte District and in other parts of Ontario are undoubtedly descended from Jan Gerretse Dorlandt, who was born in 1625 and settled upon Long Island in 1652. His brother, Lambert Janse Dorlandt, also came from Holland to the same place about 1663.

"Jan Gerretsee Dorlandt was a man of sufficient prominence in the community to allow us to trace the principal events of his life. He was born in Holland in 1625 and died in New York in 1711, leaving several sons, through one of whom, Elias Dorland, the line of descent is traced to the Canadian pioneers.

"Elias seems to have dropped the superfluous "t" from his name and to have adopted its present form. He operated a mill at the town of Hempstead, Long Island, and was a man of influence in the community. From the minutes of "a town meeting held in Hempstead, the 25th day of Janewary, 1687, we learn that Elias Dorland had granted to him liberty of a stream to set a mill on and five acres of land by it, when he finds a stream conveyniant that no mill is on or appointed to be set, upon the conditions as John Pine was granted."

"And in searching the records of this town we learn that his taxable property, real and person, consisted of "29 ackres of land, 4 oxen, 8 coves, 6 three year oulds, 3 two year oulds, 4 year oulds, 2 hoggs, 20 sheep, and 2 horses and majors."

(Doc Hist. N.Y. II 526)

"Elias Dorland died at the early age of thirty six, but his son, John Dorland lived to be almost a centenarian and survived until 1780. He was the father of Samuel Dorland, who was born at Hempstead in 1721, and remained in the United States until his death in 1809. He may be regarded, however, as the progenitor of the Dorlands in Canada, for six of his children accompanied Major VanAlstine's expedition and were among the pioneer settlers of Hay Bay, Adolphustown and Prince Edward.

"Philip Dorland at once took a prominent part in the new settlement. The first "town meeting" was held in Adolphustown on March 6th, 1793, and the minutes were signed, "Philip Dorland, T.C." Among the first magistrates appointed in Upper Canada, in addition to Major VanAlstine, we find the names of Thomas Dorland and Nicholas Hagerman. It is not clear when Philip removed to Prince Edward County, but he took up his abode there (influenced, perhaps, by the large number of his friends, who were settling there), and was returned as member from Lennox and Prince Edward to the first Parliament of Upper Canada, convened by Governor Simcoe in 1792. Because of his religious scruples, for he belonged to the Society of Friends, he would not take the oath of office prescribed by law, and his seat was declared vacant. There was some disposition on the part of his constituency to protest his exclusion by successive re-elections. It appears, however, that Major VanAlstine served during a part of one parliament and eventually Captain Thomas Dorland, a brother of Philip Dorland, was elected and served for some years. He had been a captain in the British army and served under General Burgoyne. Being taken prisoner, he escaped to Canada, but when peace was declared he returned and brought his family and personal effects to Adolphustown. He was granted three thousand acres of land by the Crown, and in addition to this grant, he was a man of considerable means, bringing with him, it is said, some twenty slaves from New York.

"Another brother was John Dorland, who married, first, Elizabeth Ricketson, and second, Sarah Smith. He was born in 1749 and died in 1833. His son Joseph Dorland, born in Hempstead, 1780, moved to Hillier in 1802, and married Elizabeth Palmer. They had a number of children, including among others, Deborah who married John H. Ferguson and settled in Wellington in the first years of the past century. Their children include: Susan, Albert, Ruth A., Emma, Elizabeth J., and Catherine A."

Settled in Adolphustown.

Was granted 3000 acres of land, and when he brought his family to Adolphustown, he also brought twenty slaves from New York from Dictionary of Canadian Biography, Volume 6:.

DORLAND, THOMAS, JP, politician, office holder, and militia officer; b. 1759 in Beekman's Precinct, Dutchess County, N.Y., son of Samuel Dorland; m. Alley Gow, and they had two sons and three daughters; d. 5 March 1832 in Adolphustown, Upper Canada.

Thomas Dorland was descended from Dutch Quakers who immigrated to North America in the mid-17th century and settled on Long Island, N.Y. His family was loyal during the American revolution, but only Thomas broke with the non-violent doctrines of the Quakers and fought. According to legend, he was captured by rebels and escaped; his slaves, although threatened, refused to reveal his hiding-place. Dorland was one of the many loyalist refugees who made his way to New York City. He served there with the Associated Loyalists until September 1783, when he left in a company led by Peter Van Alstine. After wintering in Quebec at Sorel [see Michael Grass*], Van Alstine's company moved on and arrived at Township No.4 (Adolphustown) along the Bay of Quinte in June 1784. A return of 5 October describes Dorland and a woman, presumably his wife, as being "housed on their land." The next few years were given over to the commonplace tasks of clearing land and raising a family.

Thomas's brother Philip was one of the dominant figures in the township. He was elected to the first parliament of Upper Canada but, being a Quaker, refused to take the requisite oath. Thomas, however, had been disowned by the Society of Friends for taking up arms and his public career was not hobbled by the same constraints. From 1793 he was elected to a variety of municipal offices: overseer of highways, pathmaster, assessor, and collector. By 1797 he had evidently been appointed a justice of the peace for the Midland District. His petition that year for 1,200 acres of land due to him as a magistrate was accepted by the Executive Council. Dorland was a regular participant in the meetings of the Court of Quarter Sessions.

In 1804 Dorland was elected to the House of Assembly for the riding of Lennox and Addington. The timing was important. Dorland came to York (Toronto) when opposition to Lieutenant Governor Peter Hunter*'s administrative reforms was acquiring a parliamentary focus. Led by David McGregor Rogers and, after 1805, by William Weekes*, a small, fluctuating group of assemblymen used the house to air public grievances. Although never a major figure in the assembly, Dorland was active through the session of 1805. He supported attempts to revise the Assessment Act of 1803, to extend full civil and religious rights to dissenters, and to limit the salaries of public officials. The opposition found its stride during Alexander Grant*'s brief administration and, under the leadership of Robert Thorpe* and then of Joseph Willcocks*, grew in strength until the War of 1812. Branded by its detractors as a "party" – a contemporary synonym for faction – the group was, in fact, a loose coalition of interests coming together at times, often for disparate reasons, on matters of perceived common concern.

The loyalists had a profound sense of grievance because of many of Hunter's reforms, particularly the limitations placed on free land grants to loyalists and their descendants, and in 1807 Dorland and Allan MacLean* petitioned the Executive Council on behalf of local loyalist children. Thorpe hoped to make common cause with the loyalists and, according to Richard Cartwright*, actively courted loyalist assemblymen such as Dorland and Ebenezer Washburn. The appeal was successful; a Thorpe resolution to discuss the claims of loyalist and military claimants for land was defeated in March 1807 by only one vote. Cartwright considered men such as Dorland "simple folks" who were the "dupes of Mr. Thorpe in his attempts to create confusion."

The truth, however, was not so simple. Dorland was a man of independent bent. He actively supported attempts to assert the rights of the assembly and to use the power of that institution to redress grievances. Yet he would not support the motion of 1 March 1805 by Weekes and Rogers to consider "the disquietude which prevails in the Province by reason of the administration of Public Offices." He was a moderate and his criticisms of government were never as all-encompassing as those of Weekes or his successors. Dorland's opposition bore strong hues of sectional interest and reflected the concerns of the small farmer and loyalist. He was, for instance, a persistent opponent of the District School Act of 1807. To his mind, it was "not useful to the District in general." What he meant by that remark is indicated by petitions he introduced in the house. "A few wealthy inhabitants, and those of the town of Kingston," the petitioners complained, "reap exclusively the benefit [of the district school]. . . . The institution, instead of aiding the middling and poorer class . . . casts money into the lap of the rich." When in March 1808 the house attempted to reorder the day's business to accommodate a third reading of an amendment to the School Act, Dorland, Rogers, and Peter Howard* walked out of the chamber to deny a quorum. Lieutenant Governor Francis Gore*, describing their conduct as "extraordinary" and their action as "unprecedented," stripped them of office. Dorland was left off the commission of the peace and was not restored to the magistracy until 1814. He was unabashed. Re-elected in 1808, he continued in much the same fashion as before. Still, his level of activity diminished, probably because of ill health. Through 1811 and 1812 he often supported Willcocks's initiatives against the administration but departed from the opposition group whenever he saw fit. Whether Dorland contested his riding in the election of 1812 is not known.

A long-standing officer in the 1st Lennox Militia, he was a captain during the War of 1812; in this capacity he was a member of the court that convicted Joseph Seely*. If nothing else, the war made clear to York officialdom the distinction between the discontented and the disaffected. Dorland was clearly one of the former. On 24 March 1814 he was appointed a high treason commissioner.

In the years following the war and until his death, Dorland was the epitome of the public-spirited subject. He was, with John Macaulay*, John Kirby*, and Thomas Markland*, one of the foremost JPs in the Midland District. He served regularly on the grand jury, often as its foreman, a role that gave him a further degree of public prominence. In the last few years of his life he was a perennial choice as one of the associate justices at the district assizes. He was a member of the Midland District Agricultural Society, a subscriber to the Brock monument, and the agent in Adolphustown for the Kingston Chronicle. In 1823 he was promoted major in the militia. From 1802 to 1824 he operated the ferry from Adolphustown to Prince Edward County.

Dorland was said to own as many as 20 slaves. Supposedly called "Devil Tom," he was well known for his "eccentric and risky tricks." He does not seem to have been a man of strong religious conviction. Although his children were married by the Presbyterian clergyman Robert McDowall*, Dorland's only formal association with religion after his Quaker youth came late in life when he joined the Church of England. Gore and Cartwright were scandalized by Dorland's political behaviour, but John Beverley Robinson* and Macaulay remembered him differently. Robinson, commenting on Macaulay's address to the grand jury at Adolphustown after Dorland's death, noted: "You speak of our respected old friend Thomas Dorland having left a 'gap' which will not be easily filled up – It is literally true however, for the present times do not seem to breed such men."

The Noxon Family

"The Noxon family is descended from Andrew Noxon, of Ayrshire, Scotland. His son, James D. Noxon , married the daughter of Sir Samuel Pascoe, Governor of Jamaica. The young people, indeed, eloped from Jamaica to New York, and there took up their permanent abode. Their four sons all settled in Dutchess County.

"A descendant James, son of James and Mary Bentley Noxon, was the Canadian pioneer. Born in 1765, when twenty-three years of age he married Lanor DeLong and came to Canada with a number of other intending settlers. He was the leading spirit of the party, and was usually to be seen in the van of their fleet of batteaux. When the word was passed along that James Noxon was in the leading batteau the utmost confidence was place in his guidance. He first settled on Hay Bay, but afterwards bought two hundred acres of land in Sophiasburgh. Of his children, Jonathan, Lanor and Dorland lived in what was known as Christian street, and which was about eight miles northwest of Bloomfield, and probably acquired its name through the fact that so many Friends lived there.

"Patience and determination (Scottish characteristics James Noxon evinced through life) were powerful traits in his character. In early years he does not appear to have had very strong religious convictions, nor did he at that time unite with any religious body; but after the death of his first wife and his marriage to Elizabeth Dorland, he asked to be, and was, admitted to membership in the Society of Friends. He remained a Friend for forty-five years, and became one of the Society's ministers. In 1837 he visited meetings of the Friends in New York and other States with much acceptability. He was connected with the first church in Bloomfield, which stood on the site of the New Light Quaker meeting house, Joseph Leavens was minister, and was succeeded by Morty Outwaters; later came a travelling preacher, a Frenchman. He in turn was succeeded by James Noxon, a Friend who lived in Sophiasburgh, near Fish Lake, He is described as a clever man, who came regularly to Monthly and Quarterly meetings attired in knee breeches and a broad brimmed hat.

"James Noxon, the third child of the pioneer, was born in Sophiasburgh in 1797, and married Catherine Morden, a granddaughter of Joseph Morden. About a year after his marriage he acquired two hundred acres of land in the 3rd concession of Hillier, and removed there. This portion of the country at that time was exceedingly new, and the home was reached over an ox path that they were compelled to clear with their axes. A log house was soon built, which was later succeeded by a frame one, and also a barn, the first of their kind to be created in that locality. The barn, 30 by 50 feet, was framed and raised within three days, and without the use of liquor. In this connection, it may be stated that James Noxon was a natural mechanic, and of stern temperance principles. Of his family, his sister, Lanor, and his brother, Jonathan preached the Friends religion. James Noxon attended a friends meeting on Yonge street, and being taken suddenly ill, he died and was buried in the Friends burial grounds at Newmarket.

"James Noxon died in 1842, aged seventy-eight years. Two of his grandsons, James and Samuel, were the founders of the Noxon Manufacturing Company of Ingersoll.

"Mr. James Noxon, having parted with his interest in this business, was appointed by the Ontario Government, in 1892, as Inspector of Public Institutions, a position that he has filled for many years past to the entire satisfaction of the Government and the people. His son, William C. Noxon, is a broker, and carried on business and resides in Toronto.

"Samuel Noxon, upon retiring from business, took up his residence upon his farm near the picturesque village of Wellington, where he has a beautiful home on the Lake Shore (sic). He is one of the leading citizens of Prince Edward County.

"Dr. Allan Noxon after receiving his degree, practiced at Elmonte (Almonte), then at Bloomfield, and later on at Picton. He came to Toronto in 1884, and has resided there ever since, having built up a large and lucrative practice. He enjoys the respect and confidence of a large circle of friends and acquaintances throughout the city.

"James E. Noxon, son of Gilbert Noxon, went to California, by the Isthmus of Panama route, in 1863, and remained for some years in California and Nevada, making and losing large sums of money; but, having recouped his losses by work on the gold fields and some investments in Virginia City, he returned to Canada and bought an interest in a business at Belleville. He soon returned to the Pacific coast, where he lost some money at Virginia City, but obtained employment at one hundred dollars per month, and board, and in about two years returned to Prince Edward County, and purchased the Jones homestead, having married Ellen Greer. He again visited Virginia City, and later speculated in real estate at Brandon, Portage la Prairie, and in lands at Selkirk. Of late years he has been engaged at Wellington, in the meat and grocery business, but is always ready to embark in any legitimate enterprise that offers a fair commercial profit."

Pioneer Life on the Bay of Quinte, 1904
The Flagler Family

"Like many Dutch families that have won for themselves places of competence and distinction in the New World, first in the United States, and subsequently in Canada, the Flagler family is prominent.

"The pioneer of the Flagler family in Prince Edward County - Thomas Flagler - may have been born on Canadian soil; at any rate it was at about the time of his birth that his parents came to Adolphustown from Dutchess County. His daughter, Mrs. A.P. Cameron, of Hillier, says her grandparents were among the earliest of the U.E. Loyalists to settle in Adolphustown.

"Thomas grew up and lived in or near Adolphustown for a number of years, when he crossed the Bay and located on lot 12 of the third concession of Hillier, early in the nineteenth century, now owned and occupied by Benjamin Ferguson. He had previously married Nancy Roblin (b. April 30, 1795). They were married May 16, 1814, and the ceremony was performed by Rev. Robert N. MacDonald, at Adolphustown, in the presence of John Canniff and Catherine Flagler, who signed the marriage certificate, which is now in the possession of his granddaughter, Mrs. C.S. Thorn.

"Flagler, having already had experience of pioneer life, soon showed up among the new brother settlers in Hillier as one of the best among them and worthily maintained the prestige of his nation as a competent and progressive farmer. Many years had not passed before his farm was cleared of much of its heavy timber, which he shrewdly allowed a portion of it to stand. There was on the part of some early settlers a ruthless and sweeping destruction of forest that showed little foresight, so that in parts of the county to-day the land has been denuded not only of a great natural beauty, but their successors find themselves deprived of a valuable asset. The cleared land became well-fenced, cultivated fields; the original log house disappeared, and a pile of slightly farm buildings took its place. The large frame house, the barn and other buildings are still in a good state of preservation.

"Here our pioneer's family of eight children were born - five sons and three daughters - Esther A., March 16, 1815; Philip, September 22, 1816; John R., January 5, 1819; George D., October 18, 1820; Solomon, May 1, 1823; Jane E., January 24, 1825; Catherine, September 26, 1826; Stephen N., May 6 1835. Here he lived for about twenty-five years, farming and blacksmithing, the latter having been his original trade, when he removed to what was then known as Pleasant Valley, now Hillier, where he bought a farm, which was afterwards sold to Matthew Arthur, and eventually to Stephen Nease, the present occupant. A shop was built in which his son John R. carried on the trade which he had learned from his father. The farm was already of considerable account in the neighbourhood, and remains to-day practically as it was purchased.

"In the meantime his family was getting married and settling in homes of their own, until Jane E. only remained with her parents. As Thomas Flagler and his wife were growing old he seems to have considered they were entitled to spend the evening tide of life in quiet and rest; and sold his property and came to live first in the village and then in Brighton, where he purchased a residence. He died in 1872, his wife nee Nancy Roblin, preceding him by four months.

"Thomas Flagler adhered in the main to the Conservative party in politics; in religion he was a member of the Society of Friends.

"Just one of his children lived to-day (1904), to-wit, Jane E. Flagler, who married Aaron P. Cameron. The Camerons are a noted Scotch family who emigrated at a very early period to Lower Canada. Aaron P.'s father, George Cameron, married for his second wife, Phoebe Pierson, widow of Aaron Pierson, brother of Col. James Pierson, by whom he had Aaron P., who married Jane E. Flagler. The old home of George Cameron, so widely known and respected in Prince Edward County, is still occupied by a Cameron, Mrs. S.C. Thorn (Minda J. Cameron), a daughter of Aaron P., who, with her husband, C.S. Thorn, her son, Harry C., and her mother form the household."

Historical Atlas of Hastings and Prince Edward Counties, 1878; H. Belden & Co., Toronto.

"Dr. Willet Casey Dorland (deceased), the son of Gilbert Dorland, a U.E. Loyalist, who was among the early settlers in Prince Edward, in 1802, was born in that county, on 29th July, 1805.

"The Dorlands were of Dutch descent, their ancestors having been among the first who came from Holland, and settled on Long Island, New York. From this time, the family record is traceable for some eight generations. We find that in the time of James II, that among those who took the oath of allegiance to that Sovereign in 1678, were John and Elias Dorland. Captain James Dorland was an officer of the British service at the time of the revolt of the American Colonies, and was taken prisoner by the Continental troops; but escaped their surveillance and fled to Canada about the year 1780; being one of the very first pioneers of the Bay of Quinte Region.

"We believe we draw a very reasonable conclusion, that the subject of our short memoir was the descendant of some of our early representative families. His great-uncle, Philip Dorland, was the first member returned by Prince Edward Electoral Division (then including Adolphustown, in the County of Lennox), in 1792. His maternal grandfather, Willet Casey, was elected to the fourth parliament in 1807. His uncle, Samuel Casey, was returned to Parliament by the United Counties of Lennox and Addington, in 1820.

"Dr. Dorland was elected in the Reform interest for Prince Edward County, by a large majority, to represent that Electoral Division in the Sixth Parliament of Old Canada in 1859; and was one of those who gave his adhesion to the Queen's choice - Ottawa - as the permanent capital. He always took strong and advanced grounds in his political positions in life; was unusually frank and liberal in his intercourse with men and measures of the period - regarding the legal and institutional of our country as the groundwork of our future success, and national greatness; and was justly regarded by a very wide circle of friends, both at home and abroad, as a gentleman of private as well as political integrity.

"Having received a medical education, he was enabled to successfully apply himself to a wide, ample field of usefulness, and thereby render valuable counsel and assistance to the profession.

"He was married to a daughter of the late Stephen More, of Dutchess (sic) County, New York. He held a commission of Coroner and Justice of the Peace for the County of Prince Edward at the time of his death, which occurred, to the sincerest regret of all his acquaintances, and deep affliction of his friends, on the 5th of January, 1874."

He married Susan More #78855, b. c 1807 in Dutchess County, New York, United States,<sup>20,21,85</sup> (daughter of Stephen More #105993 and (unidentified) #105994), religion 1851 Society of Friends/Quaker.

MAGRC, GEN-BOW-001-2, Merton Yarwood Williams, ( page 33),

"in the winter of 1895-6 Grandfather Williams, aided by Grandfather Bowerman, built a camp and boat-house on the Sand Bank shore midway between Wellington and West Point. This camp gave access to both Lake Ontario and West Lake and provided a retreat for Grandfather Williams where he indulged in his hobby of net fishing. It was greatly enjoyed also by his grandsons on holidays. The camp was only accessible (except at very low water) by a five mile row through the length of West Lake from the mouth of Trout Creek. This boat ride was in itself an adventure, especially when against the prevailing westerly winds."

The Dorland Family (Pioneer Life on the Bay of Quinte, 1904; pages 966 - 970)

"Susan Ferguson married, October 18th, 1857, James North Carter, who established himself at Picton and engaged in the hardware business. In such esteem was he held as a manager of public affairs that he was elected Mayor of Picton for four or five terms, and, in each case, save one, was returned by acclamation. He began life as a poor boy with two chums, Mackenzie Bowell, printer's devil, and John A. MacDonald, law student, Kingston. Although starting life without money or education, he was so well endowed with the best faculties for the battle of life, that he retired from business, wealthy, educated, and highly respected. He died while Mayor of Picton, and the spectacle of more than one thousand citizens following his bier, and every public and private building in town, as well as every vessel in the harbor, draped in mourning, bore testimony to his worth and its universal appreciation.

"Captain James North Carter, his only surviving son, holds the appointment of Adjutant of the 16th Prince Edward Regiment. Of his efficiency as a military officer it is needless to say more than that, at the divisional camp evolutions at Niagara in 1899, he was complimented before the whole staff by General Hutton and Lieutenant Col. Vidal. Deputy Adjutant General of Militia, as the youngest officer of the force, yet as the one who handled his men with the utmost promptness and efficiency in action."

The Annual Monitor for 1896, Quaker Published Memorials

"John T. Dorland was the son of John T. and Mary Ann Dorland, elders of West Lake Monthly Meeting, Canada. He was born in the village of Wellington, Ontario, on the 8th of the Third month, 1860. The youngest child of a family of seven, some of whom were grown up at the time of his birth, from his infancy he awakened a deep interest in those about him, and at an early age the impression was made upon his mother's heart that the Lord would call this one of her children to engage in His service as a Minister of the Gospel. The loving care of three grown-up sisters in his father's home had much to do with the moulding of his character, and his childhood became a time of seed-sowing that in after years brought forth an abundant increase.

"Amidst the beautiful surroundings and quiet of his native village, which is pleasantly situated upon the shores of Lake Ontario, he grew from childhood to youth, having at one time a strong desire to follow a literary career, but subsequently determining to engage in the study of law. Neither of these professions, however, were to be his life work. At a very tender age he manifested a deep interest in the Bible, and in the First-day school which he attended as a little child he was able, apparently with but little effort, to remember and repeat long passages of Scripture. But notwithstanding his many natural gifts, and the fact of his careful home training, he was soon made conscious of the need of having his heart opened to the Saviour's love., There were times when he felt he must surrender to these visitations of Divine love, and when he was under deep conviction; but unwillingness to trust fully, and a fear that if he were converted he would have to go abroad as a missionary, prevented his finding the rest and peace that come from God when the life is given up in whole-hearted surrender to Him. So the years passed until he was seventeen years of age, when the death of a beloved friend, his brother-in-law, Seburn Dorland, made a lasting impression upon him. This faithful servant of his Lord had come from the United States, hoping that the lake air would benefit his health; and his beautiful life and loving ministry were often afterwards spoken of by John Dorland as amongst the great blessings of his life. By the side of his open grave the silent prayer went up that his life might become such as his brother-in-law's had been - a prayer that has now had its gracious answer and remarkable fulfilment in the completed course of his own life, so full of the Divine blessing.

"Although these solemn calls and seasons of deep conviction had their marked influence, months passed before the light broke in and made John Dorland a new man in Christ Jesus. The desire to fit himself for the profession of his choice, the strong claims of his natural ambition to excel, and the day dreams of his boyhood, all had to be surrendered. There was before him no middle course. Christ must have all. Terrible though the ordeal seemed to all the pride of his buoyant young manhood, and sore the grief he felt to cause disappointment to some he loved, who shared the desire that he might follow the profession of his choice (in which doubtless he would have gained distinction), when the power of Divine grace brought the issues clearly home to his heart, his choice was made with a childlike trust, a singular steadfastness of purpose, and a single-hearted desire to be and to do all that God required of him. Humbly yielding to the divine will there came at once to his life much of the joyous and attractive power of grace, that made him such an honoured witness for his Lord. The work of his testimony began at once, and at Pickering College he was the means of influencing many of the students to become Christians, and "where," writes one of his friends of his boyhood, "he was admired by them for his straight-forward, upright Christian life."

"After leaving college John T. Dorland engaged in teaching for a time, but was soon called upon to relinquish this, as well as preparation for his chosen profession, and to go forth in the service of the Gospel. Great blessing attended even the very first of these journeys, and many conversations resulted. In the first neighbourhood visited, a meeting house where there had been no regular meeting was re-opened, and some time afterwards two further meetings were started in the same district. As the year 1881 was growing to a close, at the age of twenty-one, his gift to the ministry was acknowledged by his Monthly Meeting, and on the 18th of First month, 1882, he became a recorded minister.

"At this time an important change in his life took place. This was his marriage, on the 29th of Twelfth month, 1881, to Lavinia Hubbs, the daughter of William S. and Margaret Hubbs, of Bloomfield. Shortly before this John Dorland had accepted a business engagement with Elias Rogers, a Friend of Toronto, and in the newly -established meeting in that city, his ministry was continued and much blessed towards the building up and strengthening of the work that had been begun after the visit to Canada of Walter Morris. After residing for about a year in Toronto, John T. and Lavinia Dorland, with their infant daughter Margaret, removed to Brooklyn, U.S., which became their home for a couple of years. Here his time was fully taken up with his Gospel labours and visits to other Yearly Meetings, including his own in Canada. Visiting this in 1883 he met Isaac Sharp, Alfred Wright and other friends who were present from other Yearly Meetings. Already his character was distinguished by the exercise in large measure of the gracious influence of a controlled and spirit-filled life, which was the more manifest amidst the somewhat disturbed conditions that then existed in Canada; and already he had also begun to feel the burden of service for other lands. At this time an intimation came to him through one of the Friends attending the Yearly Meeting, of service that would be required of him over the sea, in which service he has since laid down his life.

"After leaving Brooklyn, where he had resided for a considerable time, he removed to Cleveland, Ohio, and found there, as elsewhere, that the work to which he was called fully occupied his time. Many were gathered to Christ through his faithful ministry, before the time came when it was made clear to him that he must visit England. Having obtained a minute for service here, he arrived in this country in time to attend in succession the Yearly Meetings of Dublin and London in the year 1888.

"For a couple of years John Dorland's family continued to reside in Wellington, Canada while he pursued his labours, visiting meetings, adult schools &c., throughout this country. A deepened interest in our own meetings, especially amongst our younger members, was the result of this labour that became apparent almost everywhere. To may also his ministry was a call to surrender to Christ, while to others it was an awakening to a more consecrated service. In the year 1889 his wife joined him for a short time in these labours, and he returned with her on a visit to his family in Canada.

"During this visit he attended Canada Yearly Meeting, in which he was appointed Clerk. Returning to England, he continued his labours under his minute from Canada Yearly Meeting, until early in the year 1890, when a trip he had long desired to make to the East was undertaken in company with J. Allen Baker. The journey extended to Egypt, Palestine, Syria, Constantinople and Athens, occupying several months, and proving one of the deepest interest to John Dorland. Not long after his return, he felt it right to remove his family from Canada to England, and for this purpose he again visited Canada at its next Yearly Meeting, which proved to be a larger meeting than had gathered for some years. It was no small trial for John Dorland to leave his aged parents and his home on this occasion, and it proved the last time he was to see the face of his father, as his decease had taken place before John Dorland's next return to Canada. But his call to England being clear, it was ever and added comfort to him in the prosecution of his work to know how freely and fully his parents had given him up for it, and how prayerfully they followed him in it.

"In a letter from Wellington, just before he sailed with his family, he wrote - "They want me to come to Cleveland, but I can see nothing but England!... This is home, and only His call could take me from it. My dear parents are so sweet about our going... For all I dread to leave, there is such a joy in the prospect of taking up my work in England. I trust God is preparing me for it in a larger measure also. Oh for His power in saving and sanctifying."

"It was the autumn of the year 1890 that John Dorland brought his family to England, settling at "Densbrook", Willesden Junction, London, which continued to be his permanent home until the time of his decease. The range of his work was now extended, taking in a largely increased number of engagements in connection with adult schools and mission centres, while at the same time continuing the specific work for which he had obtained his minute from Canada Yearly Meeting. When he had fully completed what he felt to be required of him under this minute, for a couple of years he employed part of his time under a business engagement with Joseph Baker & Sons of London. This work was not allowed to interfere with his continuing his gospel labours, for which he was free to absent himself at any time; and series of meetings, conventions, addresses, etc., continued to largely occupy him. It was under this engagement that he went to Chicago in the year 1893, remaining for several months during the time of the Exhibition. While thus engaged in business, he there found acceptable service with the Chicago Friends' Meeting, as expressed by a very cordial minute of that Meeting. During this visit to America he also had the opportunity of visiting New York Yearly Meeting.

"Upon returning from England his whole time was again devoted to religious and philanthropic work. When the Friends' First-day School Association was re-organized, and it became necessary to have a Secretary able to devote considerable time to the work, attending Annual Meetings, Conferences, etc., John T. Dorland accepted this post. During the last year and a quarter of his life he was also Editor of "One and All," the magazine of the Association, being also a frequent contributor to the "Friend," and for a considerable time responsible for the issue of the Friends' Christian Fellowship Union Monthly Circular; and being actively engaged in promoting the establishment of branches and strengthening the work of that Union, his time was very closely occupied, and much of it necessarily spent away from home.

"In every department his work was characterized by forcible clearness, sound judgement, and rich spiritual power; and his life in a remarkable manner exemplified the effective influence of the large-hearted Christian, faithful to his convictions as a thorough Friend. He felt that we could put no limitations upon the work and operation of the Holy Spirit, and "magnified his office," or, as expressed in the revised version, like Paul, he "glorified his ministry."

"About seven months before his death he took an extended journey to the East on religious service, in company with his wife and Lucy E. and Mary E. Mouncey. This trip but deepened. his interest in Egypt, Palestine, and the countries he had visited before, and his sympathies were greatly increased and feelings aroused on behalf of the Armenians. Many interesting addresses were given by him on the Eastern lands.

"Few who ever came in contact with John Dorland but were impressed with his only too rare combination of profound earnestness with a bright, joyous, and hopeful Christian character. The news of his death after a few days' illness, passed as a great shock, not only throughout this country, but wherever he had been known.

"John T. Dorland left a widow and four children - two sons and two daughters - one of the latter being born in England. In the Eighth month last Lavinia H. Dorland and her family returned to Wellington, Ontario, Canada.

"It was from attendance at the last and most encouraging Annual Meeting of the Friends' First-day School Association, held at Bristol, that John T. Dorland returned to London with a slight cold; and attending the Quarterly Meeting at Devonshire House, took a further chill. Seeming to be partially recovered he proceeded to Manchester to attend some meetings of the Friends' Christian Fellowship Union and the Byrom Street Adult School. Although more ill than he appeared, he felt that he must attend the first of these - the F.C.F.U. Meeting, into which the whole of his concern seemed to centre. The meeting was a time of very manifest blessing and outpouring of the Holy Spirit. John Dorland spoke with great power, faithfully delivering the message committed to him; and the address given in that last meeting will long be remembered by many besides those who were privileged to be present. Within an hour after its conclusion he was prostrated in much pain and suffering of the late William Brockbank, "Brockhurst," Didsbury, near Manchester, and was never able to rise again. He was joined by his wife, and a day or two later by J. Allen Baker, from London. The most skilful physicians and trained nurses were in attendance night and day, and every possible means that generous hospitality and tender solicitude could provide were freely employed to save his life, but all in vain. One week from the time of his last meeting, as the sun of a new day was breaking in through the trees in front of the mansion where he lay, he peacefully passed to his eternal rest. His wish, expressed some years before, that he might die in harness was granted; and in the hours of consciousness his expressions of peace and joy in the prospect of being with his Lord were very precious to those who heard them. No dying words were needed to witness the reality and blessedness of a spirit-filled life such as his; and the self-denial and singular devotion which characterised its entire course will long remain a monument and testimony to the praise of Him who has now called His faithful servant from the service of earth to the higher service of Heaven."

extracted from "Pioneer Life on the Bay of Quinte, 1904", page 55 :

"This young couple (Webster Talcott and Elizabeth White) died within a few years of their marriage, and within five months of each other, leaving one child, Elisha, and infant, who was reared by his grandparents. Upon coming to manhood, Elisha W. Talcott married Sarah, daughter of Jonathan Noxon, a Friends' minister, and settled near Bloomfield; their descendants are shown in the table annexed. Their four sons, James Webster Talcott, Freeman Talcott, Jonathan Talcott and Philip Talcott are among the wealthiest and most influential citizens of Prince Edward County. They have not only been successful in conducting their own affairs, but have assisted the municipality by serving in the council and helping in various ways to build up the community in which they live. The families retain their hereditary membership in the society of Friends, and all of the Talcotts, so far as known, are members of the Liberal party. They have inter-married with many of the best families of Prince Edward County; but there is no family in the Bay of Quinte district that ranks higher than this old English family of the Talcotts"

Noxon Brothers, Ingersoll

The Canadian Biographical Dictionary and Portrait Gallery of Eminent and Self-Made Men, Ontario Volume, 1880, pp 264 - 265

"Noxon Brothers' Manufacturing Company, the most extensive industry in the manufacturing line at Ingersoll, is comprised of five brothers, Freeman C., James, Samuel, Stephen, and Thomas H., sons of Samuel Noxon, senior, who was born and spent his days in the County of Prince Edward, Ontario, and grandson of James Noxon, a United Empire Loyalist from Dutchess (sic) County, N.Y. The grandfather settled in Prince Edward at the close of the American Revolution. The mother of these five sons was Rhoda White. They received a business education in the public schools of their native county, James, the second son, adding a few terms of study at the Jefferson County Institute, Watertown, N.Y.

"Samuel Noxon, senior, owned a large farm and saw-mill, and as his sons had a mechanical turn of mind, he built a shop for wood-work expressly for their use. in that shop they made anything to which they applied their skill - farm waggons, buggies, cutters, threshing machines, &c., &c. Their hands seemed to gain the mastery, almost by intuition, of nearly every kind of mechanics' tools, this being particularly the case with Freeman, James, and Samuel.

"In 1855 James and Samuel Noxon came to Ingersoll, Stephen following in 1865, and Freeman C. the oldest and Thomas H. the youngest, in 1869. At first the two pioneers in this town started a foundry, and made plows and stoves only. After a while they dropped stoves and commenced the manufacture of mowers and reapers, and grain drills, still making them a specialty. They usually turn out about 1,500 reapers and mowers, and 1,000 grain-drills, doing a business from $230,000 to $250,000 a year; and employing, in inside work, about 120 men, and a large force outside. No other manufacturing establishment in town has done, or is doing, half so much to build it up, though there are several large factories and mills in the place.

"The buildings cover four or five acres, the main building being 460 feet long, and the greater part of 125 feet wide, and two stories high. The location is on Thames Street, directly between the Great Western and Credit Valley Railway tracks, with the station of the former road joining on the north, and that of the latter on the south, thus having the best conveniences possible for the shipment of machines. In the large office (25 by 65 feet) are branches of the Dominion and Montreal Telegraph offices, and a branch of the American Express office.

"The reapers and mowers manufactured in these shops include the Standard Combined, the Standard Single Reaper, and the Standard Light Mower, and are second in quality to nothing of the kind manufactured in the Province. The grain-drills made by Noxon Brothers, are the celebrated "Hoosier," which attracted so much attention at the International Centennial Exhibition, held at Philadelphia in 1876. It is manufactured also as a combined drill and broadcast seeder, and includes in its makeup, all the best points found in the latest and best machines of the kind. This company also manufactures hand and power feed-cutters, cultivators, horse-swing machines, &c., but nothing that is cheap and frail. The best timber and iron is put into these machines, and their durability as well as excellence keep the price at fair remunerative rates. Their reapers and mowers are found in every part of the dominion where grain and grass grow, and are very popular.

"The Noxon Brothers Manufacturing Company was incorporated in 1872. James being President; Samuel, Secretary and Treasurer; Freeman, Superintendent, the other two brothers having particular charges outside. All have families but Stephen. All have managed to keep out of office except James, who has had responsibilities in the municipalities of the town and county as often as quite as long as he has desired them. As head manager of these great manufacturing works, his labors and responsibilities are all, it is evident, that he covets."

He married Margaret Jane McDonald #72994.

Obituary.. (date and publication unknown)

"Joseph J. Brown, a life-long resident of Bloomfield, passed away Monday, June 12. Mr. Brown had been confined to bed for five weeks.

"Mr. Brown was born on the Cronk farm, one mile from Bloomfield, August 29, 1848. His father was the late Stewart Brown, and his mother's maiden name was Katherine Corner.

"On May 18, 1865. Joseph J. Brown and Jemima White, daughter of Corne(lius) White, were married. They resided on the farm at Bloomfield, now owned by Fred Hubbs. Both were prominent members of the Society of Hicksite Friends.

"Mr. Brown was a Conservative in politics. He took an active part in municipal affairs and in 1905 he was elected as reeve of Bloomfield.

"He was a member of the Masonic fraternity.

"Mr. Brown, in his younger days, farmed on a large scale. For twenty-five years he had a 500 acre farm on which he kept a herd of forty head of dairy cattle. He also raised hops when that produce was in demand.

"He acted as an agent for several years for the J.M. Thorburn Seed Company of New York.

"Along with W.H. Gough and H. Cooper, he was instrumental in having the first rock road constructed through H...mfield.

"Besides his wife, Mr. Brown is survived by three sons and one daughter: Don Brown of Bloomfield, with whom he outlived; Dr. Sherman Brown of Poughkeepsie, N.Y.; Dr. Sanger Brown of Albany, N.Y.; and Miss Ethel Brown of New York City.

"A sister, Miss Bertha Brown, lives in New York. Two brothers and a sister predeceased him - Dr. Sanger Brown of Chicago, Dr. Willet Brown of New York, and Mrs. Ida Leavens of Bloomfield.

"The funeral took place Wednesday afternoon, Rev. Harry Parry of Wellington conducting the service. Interment made in the Hicksite Cemetery. Pall bearers were his three sons, and grandson, Joe Brown, and Edward and Howard (Leav)ens and Fred Hubbs."

Obituary: An Appreciation of Elma Noxon Mastin

(By Charlotte Talcott-Cox), (publication name/date unknown, 1932)

"The passing of Elma A. Mastin, beloved wife of S.E. Mastin, touched the hearts of many who had known her from her earliest years to the hour of her departure from the island of Time, to the land of Eternity.

"Elma Noxon was born of Quaker parentage. Her mother was Mary J. Thomas. her father, Reuben Noxon. was a grandson of James Noxon, the first Quaker minister in Prince Edward County - if not the first in Canada. Mrs. Mastin was the grand-daughter of Jonathan Noxon and Jemima Way. Jonathan Noxon was a prominent Quaker minister who lived and died in Bloomfield.

"Mrs. Mastin, in every relation of life - wife, mother, friend and neighbour, expressed in her daily life the chief characteristics of Christian womanhood.

"In her quiet, kindly disposition lay the "Consecration" that was not wrapped in a holy web of doctrine, but in the joyful, smiling experiences of loving and living, which sprung forth fruit during her whole life. She found on earth her real heaven, and she lived in it as few knew how to live, free from envy and uncharitableness.

"She went forth upon her homeward journey leaving messages of love and kind words. She died in the autumn of life, with clustering fruits at the end of the harvest.

"We shall miss her in our community life, our Institute and Club, where her personal influence and assistance were valued.

"We deeply sympathise with the bereaved husband and family who sorrow."

"Out and beyond in the shining way."

She married Stewart Edgar Mastin/Masten #76893, 19 July 1881 in Picton, Prince Edward County, Ontario,<sup>927</sup> b. 29 March 1858 in Hallowell Township, Prince Edward County, Ontario,<sup>928,152</sup> (son of Benjamin L. Pioneer Life on the Bay of Quinte, 1904; pages 561 - 572:

"There is another descendant of the pioneer Morden, who is well-known throughout the Bay of Quinte district. Wilson S. Morden, son of Jonathan, grandson of Richard, great-grandson of James, and great-great-grandson of Joseph Morden, the pioneer, was born on Victoria Day, 1864. He is graduate of Queen's University, having received the degree of B.A. in 1888, and of LL.B. in 1894. Having pursued the study of the legal profession under the supervision of R.C. Clute, K.C. (now Mr. Justice Clute), he was called to the Bar in 1892, and was associated in the practice with Col. W.N. Ponton, until 1896, when he became the junior partner in the firm of Clute, Williams & Morden. Williams withdrew in 1901, and the firm remained as Clute & Morden. Mr. Morden enjoys a large and lucrative practice, and his clientele embraces many well-known firms and corporations, including the Dominion Bank. He is Past Master of Moira Masonic Lodge, First Principal of Moira Chapter and member of King Baldwin Preceptory, Knights Templar. He also belongs to the A.O.U.W and the I.O.F. In politics he is a Liberal-Conservative and has rendered valuable services to his party, being especially effective upon the stump. He adheres to the Presbyterian faith, and is chairman of the Board of Managers of the John Street Presbyterian Church. Mr. Morden,
