From "Pioneer Life on the Bay of Quinte, 1904":

The Dulmage Family

"David Dulmage was born in 1746 in the county of Limerick, Ireland, to which place his ancestors had formerly emigrated from Germany (1709). Dissatisfied with his position in Ireland, he followed the stream of exiles of his own and other German families and settled in America. He married Mary Jennings, who was born in Lancaster county, Pa., January 1st 1747. In the War of Independence David Dulmage took sides with the British, and at its close came as one of the United Empire Loyalists to Canada, and located at the head of South Bay. Three of his children were born before coming to this country, to wit, Elizabeth, born 1771; Margaret, born 1773, and Jacob, born 1778.

"Jacob Dulmage, eldest son of the Pioneer, was for a short time resident of Adolphustown, where he married Sarah Huff, a daughter of Solomon Huff, one of the United Empire Loyalists, who signed the subscription list for the first Methodist Church in Ontario. This list bears date, February 3rd, 1792. He soon moved to South Marysburg, where he met his death by drowning about 1840. From this branch of the Dulmage family is descended C.C. James, Deputy Minister of Agriculture for Ontario. See Huff family.

"Margaret Dulmage married Augustus Wright. Their eldest child was the Rev. Daniel Wright, father of Dr. H.H. Wright, of Toronto. By intermarriage with the Huff family the Dulmages are related to the Allison and Hoovers. Amy Allison, who became Mrs. Gunsalos, says that when the question of her given name was being discussed, it was proposed by her grandmother Hoover, nee Huff, that she should be named Barbara Heck, after their celebrated relative.

"William Z. Dulmage, a grandson, has been a Justice of the Peace for many years. In the Rebellion of 1837 William's uncle Peter, marched to Toronto in the ranks of Captain Hudgins' company of Militia.

"Edward, the second son of the Pioneer, was, like Nimrod of Jewish patriarchal times, "a mighty hunter." Philip C. Dulmage, a great-grandson of Edward, tells a story of how a certain bear was mistaken for a deer on one occasion. Bound on a hunting expedition, Edward proceeded to the deer lick. Arrived there, he waited patiently till the short twilight was deepening into darkness, when two of his senses assured him that a deer was warily moving towards the lick. Biding his time, he fired, and the deer, as he supposed, fell. He descended, leaving the carcass where it fell for the time being. Returning next morning for his prize, he found a bear weighing over two hundred pounds! Edward was also a successful fisherman and had great skill with the spear. Fishing was then very productive, and it was nothing unusual for him to return from a day's fishing on the waters of South Bay with two boat loads, filled to the gunwale. Between hunting and fishing - he did little else - Edward made a good living.

"Sheldon Dulmage, Edward's son served in the Rebellion of 1837 in the Light Horse Cavalry. He lived five years after his marriage in South Marysburg, and then removed to Athol. Philip C. Dulmage, Sheldon's son, is a large stock, grain and fruit farmer in Athol. His residence and farm fittings are of the kind which do credit to Prince Edward County. Of remarkable physique, he has been fond of displaying his great strength in humorous feats which some of the present residents of Cherry Valley remember. He is a man of substance financially and likely to go farther yet. He enrolled in the militia reserve in the township of Athol in 1869, the captain being W.B. Blakely, a grandson of Colonel James Blakely.

"Mary, the youngest daughter of the Pioneer, born 1780, married Owen P. Roblin, born 1774, and thus another connection with a distinguished family was accomplished. See the Roblin family.

"Philip Dulmage, ninth child and youngest of the Pioneer, married Lydia Ostrander, and their descendants are among the best and most prominent people of Prince Edward County. He was a man of great energy and perseverance - a typical pioneer - and walked through the forests to Toronto to secure the patent for the lands upon which he settled in South Marysburg."

From the genealogy compiled by Murray Clapp, at the Marilyn Adams Genealogical Research Centre, Ameliasburgh:

"A.C. Dulmage, during his life was known to friends as "A.C", and to the family as "Crit". He was a big dapper gentleman who was always dressed neatly and wore a derby hat. A.C. could be considered one of the last "gentleman farmers", who were content to plan operations on the farm, but a bit reluctant to soil his own hands. A.C. travelled in the upper circles of society. One year he shipped his apple crop to England under his personal attendance and charter. He returned with British products, a pure-bred bull, and quantities of imported beer, ale, and cognac. Likely any profits from the apple sales were eroded by the extravagance. A.C. used to get oysters by the barrel imported, and with his Picton society friends, consume them, washed down by Montreal beer.

"When A.C. was older (and deeper in debt), he offered the farm to his sons, free, provided they pay off the debts and mortgage. None of the boys were interested on any condition. Phil Farrington and Frances (Dulmage) spent some of their first years of marriage as the lighthouse keepers on False Ducks Island or Swetman Island (1891-94). A.C. offered Phil the old farm on the above conditions and Phil accepted the burden.

"Phil was a slave to work and in a reasonably short time had the farm mortgage paid off and made considerable improvements on the farm and bought more adjacent lands; the Gibson place (across the road), the Cooper place (on lake front), the Lobb place (on Royal Street), etc."

Edward Ivan Harrison

He Had Long Been Prominent in Prince Edward

Picton Times

"There passes away from the community of Cressy life on Sept. 2nd, 1920, Edward Ivan Harrison, last surviving son of the late Archibald and Sarah Harrison. He was a man long known in this region as a farmer of competency in farm things and ability in general questions beyond the farm and fireside. Born in 1850 (August 30th) on the farm in Cressy now owned by H.H. Horsey, he was raised to manhood there on his father's place and taught the rudiments of that great industry that extracts from the soil the products which sustain the life of man and beast. He spent most of his three score years and ten on a farm in Cressy. There was, however, an interval of western adventure and enterprise. He took up a section of land near Brandon, built on it, and disposed of the place after a few years stay there. He thereupon settled down in Cressy and lived there with but short interruptions until his death.

"His last years were years of perplexity, struggling for several years against failing health and a peculiar malady of a nervous kind yet with a steadfast spirit full of faith and hope. Two years and three months of this time he spent upon his bed unable to get up. In spite of his distressful physical disability he maintained his spirit of humor and joviality, delighted to talk and visit with his neighbors and to exchange counsel and advice on familiar topics. He was of the temperament that could keep cheerful and hopeful under adversity. And at the very last he met the Grim Reaper with a smile that was frozen on his countenance by the icy hand of death. He possessed a mind of resourceful associations and he retained his mental alertness to the end. He was thus able to guide his farm work from the bedside and to bear up against "a sea of troubles" against adverse conditions that might well have made a lesser man succumb.

"He was a staunch churchman, one of the old guard of Cressy Methodism whose numbers are gradually thinning out with the lapse of years, making way for a new generation to take up the burden that they are laying down. In matters of political affiliation he was a firm supporter of Liberal politics and a great admirer of the leadership of Sir Wilfrid Laurier.

"He leaves to mourn him a widow, Mrs. Ida Harrison, two sister, Mrs. W.Y. Boyd, Kingston, and Mrs. Catharine Hall, Utica, N.Y., also a niece whom he reared from infancy, and being a lover of the youth always he brought up three boys from childhood. He had a great host of friends who will think upon him with affection and regret, and drop a sigh about his grave as he lies in the peaceful slopes of Cressy churchyard."

PEARSALL, Leland Fred

Born May 23, 1921, "100 years", passed away April 7, 2022 at the Prince Edward County Memorial Hospital.

Meeting his goal of 100 yrs was one of the best days of his life. He was a 5th generation farmer on the family farm working hard and enjoyed a long, full and very healthy life. He had the enjoyment of many friendships and married to the love of his life and business partner, Barbara, for 76.5 yrs. He always said that he lived at the best of times to see so many changes like walking behind a plough all day to prepare a field, to the big tractors of today sowing his fields in a day. He became very fit and strong, laughing about those thinking they could arm wrestle this young skinny guy and underestimating his strength. He milked cows, then moved to beef cattle and finally was a Drover with Ross Mangan, a cattle buyer. "I've been in most barns in this County". He had so many stories and they always ended with how he treated people honestly. Honesty was a strong value that he held high and always lived by. He loved helping people and supported farmers to get their herd going or sitting with farmers to help and teach them how to buy good cattle for reasonable prices at the sales barns. A fellow farmer with a loaded truck and a flat tire prompted Leland to stop and load the man's cow onto his truck and took her to the sales barn allowing the man to fix his tire and still get to see his cow sold.

Dancing was a great joy for both parents and he was dancing on his 95th birthday and doing the old fashioned waltz like a pro. He had his trade mark quick sense of humour. He was still making us all laugh right up until the day before he went to hospital. He believed that you add 7 minutes to your life with every laugh you have. Leland had the distinction of being a lifetime donor to the Picton Blood Donor Clinic and a Life member of the Picton Elks Lodge.

He is predeceased by his parents Rodman "Earl" Pearsall and Eva Viola Sullivan and his daughter Evva "Roanne" Therrien, and his sister Reta Brummell and brother-in-law Marshall Brummell. Leland will be sadly missed by daughter Rilla Rhodes (Leith), son-in-law Jack Therrien, grandsons Dustin Therrien (Crystal) and Derek Therrien. Remembered by his great grandchildren as GG pop to Arlo, Deacon, and Raya Therrien.
