Farrington Family

"Among the families of United Empire Loyalists who settled in Prince Edward County at an early date the Farringtons must be numbered, and all honor be accorded it for the reason, if there were none other, at the founder - the word foundress has not yet been incorporated into the language - was a woman. Mrs. Farrington lost her husband before the family removed here from the then newly constituted United States. She was left with four sons, Edward, Joseph, Samuel and James. It was probably her loyalty to the old flag of Britain that contributed to Mrs. Farrington's departure from the country which was now to have a flag of its own. Be this as it may, she showed marvellous courage and fortitude in disregarding the perils of the way. These she experienced in full measure. If no worse than others experienced, they were at least as bravely encountered and surmounted. The journey was long and tedious in the extreme, and when she arrived, the hardships incident to the settlement in a new country has to be passed through. Her best stock in trade, next to her own dauntless courage, consisted in her four sons, who, though the cause of maternal anxiety and endless care to begin with, would, she hoped, grow up to be her stay and comfort. And so the great experiment of her life began, and experiment which turned out as well as could be expected. Mrs. Farrington's eldest son, Edward, married Mary A., the third child of Philip M. Keller, a pioneer of German descent, and settled in South Marysburg. They had eleven children all of whom, with the exception of Deborah, settled in South Marysburgh, and she married and settled in Athol. Their son, Philip, married Lydia Hudgin.

"A great-grandson, George M., married Augusta Woods and settled in Picton. No citizen stands higher in public esteem and no merchant is more progressive and up-to-date. He has built up a lathe and flourishing clothing and gents furnishing store entirely by his own industry, shrewdness and frugality; and at the same time has taken an active part in all movements for the public good. He has served in the council and organized the town band of which he is president. He is progressive in all his ideas and at the present writing is Mayor of Picton, having been elected to that responsible position in January 1905.

"Deborah, the youngest of Edward's children, was the second wife of William Starks, of a distinguished U.E. Loyalist family. George P., another son of Edward married Eliza Chambers, the daughter of a pioneer of Scotch-Irish descent; and Angeline, another daughter, married Norman Ostrander.

"Passing from Edward, we find that Mrs. Farrington's second son, Joseph, married Lucy Rorabeck. With the exception of James, the youngest son, who finally settled in Michigan, the four stalwart sons of Mrs. Farrington all settled in South Marysburg, and a large number of their numerous descendants are still to be found in Prince Edward County. Others have migrated to other parts of Canada and some have returned to the United States."

Leland:

PEARSALL, Leland Fred

Born May 23, 1921, "100 years", passed away April 7, 2022 at the Prince Edward County Memorial Hospital.

Meeting his goal of 100 yrs was one of the best days of his life. He was a 5th generation farmer on the family farm working hard and enjoyed a long, full and very healthy life. He had the enjoyment of many friendships and married to the love of his life and business partner, Barbara, for 76.5 yrs. He always said that he lived at the best of times to see so many changes like walking behind a plough all day to prepare a field, to the big tractors of today sowing his fields in a day. He became very fit and strong, laughing about those thinking they could arm wrestle this young skinny guy and underestimating his strength. He milked cows, then moved to beef cattle and finally was a Drover with Ross Mangan, a cattle buyer. "I've been in most barns in this County". He had so many stories and they always ended with how he treated people honestly. Honesty was a strong value that he held high and always lived by. He loved helping people and supported farmers to get their herd going or sitting with farmers to help and teach them how to buy good cattle for reasonable prices at the sales barns. A fellow farmer with a loaded truck and a flat tire prompted Leland to stop and load the man's cow onto his truck and took her to the sales barn allowing the man to fix his tire and still get to see his cow sold.

Dancing was a great joy for both parents and he was dancing on his 95th birthday and doing the old fashioned waltz like a pro. He had his trade mark quick sense of humour. He was still making us all laugh right up until the day before he went to hospital. He believed that you add 7 minutes to your life with every laugh you have. Leland had the distinction of being a lifetime donor to the Picton Blood Donor Clinic and a Life member of the Picton Elks Lodge.

He is predeceased by his parents Rodman "Earl" Pearsall and Eva Viola Sullivan and his daughter Evva "Roanne" Therrien, and his sister Reta Brummell and brother-in-law Marshall Brummell. Leland will be sadly missed by daughter Rilla Rhodes (Leith), son-in-law Jack Therrien, grandsons Dustin Therrien (Crystal) and Derek Therrien. Remembered by his great grandchildren as GG pop to Arlo, Deacon, and Raya Therrien.
