

Generation One

1. Sylvester Faulkner #178129, b. in Massachusetts.

Pioneer Life on the Bay of Quinte, 1904

Faulkner Family

"Sylvester Faulkner was a native of Massachusetts and had married his wife, Mary Cram, before coming to Canada. He settled in the township of Sidney, first buying land upon the River Trent, near Frankford, and later establishing his home upon the seventh concession. The settlement about him is known to this day as Faulkner's settlement. He was a man of strong convictions, great energy and unswerving integrity. Being an earnest believer in the Baptist Church, he was instrumental in having a church of that denomination established in his neighbourhood. Although a staunch Liberal, he would neither seek nor accept any public office.

"The sons of Sylvester Faulkner were well-to-do agriculturalists. They settled in Sidney, and they and their posterity represented some of the best citizenships of that township; and many of the later generations have made their way in professional and mercantile life as well.

"Dr. William Fraser, a grandson, and graduate of the University of Michigan, became a surgeon in the United States Army during the Civil War, and afterwards located in Washington, where he was regarded as a very successful practitioner.

"Of Stephen Gilbert Faulkner's sons, Doctor George W., born in 1845, graduated in medicine at McGill University, Montreal. He practised in Iowa for one and a half years, and then settled in Stirling in 1872, where he has since resided and practised his profession, excepting an interval of fifteen years, during which time he conducted a banking, mercantile and grain business. The banking building at Tweed, now occupied by the Sovereign Bank of Canada, was built and used by him in his banking business. He was Reeve of the village of Stirling for eight years, and Warden of Hastings County, in 1886. In the year last named, he stood for Parliament in the north riding of Hastings, in the Liberal interest, opposing A.F. Wood. In 1897, he received the appointment of License Inspector of North Hastings. He has been trustee of the High School Board for thirty years, and Chairman for four years.

"Dr. Faulkner's son, Dr. James A. Faulkner, is a graduate of Arts, McMasters University, and also a graduate of medicine, McGill University, Montreal

"Dr. Daniel W. Faulkner, second son of Steven Gilbert Faulkner, is a graduate of medicine, McGill College, Montreal, 1878. Upon graduating he locate at Foxboro, and has practised there ever since, having a large, lucrative practice. He has held municipal offices in Thurlow for the past fifteen years, and at the present writing, he is Warden of the county.

"Sylvester Faulkner, fourth son of Steven Gilbert Faulkner, is one of the best known insurance men in Canada, being manager of the North American Life Assurance Company, for the Pacific Coast."
