Pioneer Life on the Bay of Quinte, 1904
Flindall Family

"This family has been prominently identified with the Carrying Place and Trenton for nearly a century. John M. Flindall, the founder of the family in Canada, was an Englishman by birth, receiving a good education and becoming a master printer in London, England. He emigrated (sic) to Canada in 1816, where he expected to become King's Printer. Being disappointed in this behalf, he subsequently purchased a farm of two hundred acres at the Carrying Place, and for a while carried on farming. He had three sons and four daughters.

"John F. Flindall, his eldest son, was born in London, England, in 1804, and came to Canada with his father when only twelve years of age. He did not take kindly to farming in his youth, although in later years he owned large tracts of land. He was possessed of a commercial spirit, was ambitious to succeed, and we find him, while a mere youth, employed as a clerk by Colonel Adam Henry Meyers, who had opened a large general store at the "Trent" in 1808. Some years later young Flindall, who in the meantime had attained his majority, started a distillery in East Trenton, but transformed it into a brewery and malt house. This venture was not so successful as his previous ones, and it was subsequently abandoned.

"John F. Flindall, was a man, broad intellectually and possessed of great force of character and executive ability. He was naturally a leader among men, and was first, and foremost in everything that tended to advance the community. He was a generous man and gave liberally to the poor, and was always willing to contribute to any worthy object. He was for years a warden of St. George's Church. He was also a captain in the militia and took an active interest in military affairs, having served his country in the Rebellion of 1837-38. The Flindall family still have in their possession the sword, pistol, musket and old blunderbuss owned by him. The former was used by Mr. Flindall, while the latter is supposed to have been brought from England by Mr. Flindall's father. As before stated Mr. Flindall owned a large tract of land in Sidney, which he farmed until his death, in 1891.

"He married in 1828, Myra A., daughter of Jehiel Hawley of Bath; she was a niece of Josiah and Sheldon Hawley, the Trent pioneers. Their children were: John F., George, Stephen, Emily, Charlotte and Susan.

"The Flindall family are connected by marriage and otherwise with many of the leading families in the Bay district; James B. Christie, Postmaster of Trenton, married a granddaughter."
