Generation One

1. Hugh Garratt #74003, b. in Belfast, Ireland.

The Garrett Families (Pioneer Life on the Bay of Quinte, pages 82 - 87)

"Hugh Garrett, the father of the two brothers Garrett, who became the Prince Edward County pioneers, came from Belfast, Ireland, and settled in Dutchess County, New York. Isaac Garrett preceded his brother Benjamin to Canada by a few years, and it is probable that he came in response to one of the proclamations of Lieut.-Governor Simcoe about 1795 or 1796.

"He bought four hundred acres of land, paying for it at the rate of twenty-five cents per acre, on the shore of Lake Ontario, near where the village of Wellington now stands. There was then only one settler on the shore of the lake, the famous hunter and trapper, Daniel Reynolds, who had purchased six hundred acres, and reared a substantial dwelling in the same neighbourhood. Isaac had made a clearing and commenced building a house on the very spot where the home of John Garrett, his grandson, now stands, when he was obliged to return to his family in New York State, entrusting its completion to a man who may have come over with him. But Isaac's difficulties had only commenced, with his return to the United States, for the house had only attained the height of three logs from the ground, when the man whom Isaac had left in charge was taken ill; and when he returned with his wife and six children, it was to find the house hardly at all advanced from the state in which he had left it, and a large tree had fallen across it. In the meantime, however, a settler named Aaron White had planted himself in the neighborhood. He was a man who, though possessed of a very large family, had contented himself to begin with, by the erection of a very small cabin; but possessed at least a large heart, White took in the Garrett's, until such time as their own house could be put in a condition to receive them. The difficulty of the situation was further increased at this time by the birth of a seventh son into the Garrett family. When Benjamin Garrett came he settled on land lying between that of the pioneer, Reynolds, and his brother Isaac. Reynolds had been "monarch of all he surveyed" for several years, and when the Garretts came, humorously said that he would have to move out, for the pasture range on either side of him was being cut off and he feared his cattle would starve! The Garretts were for some time unable to grow wheat; and their staff of life consisted of rye bread, a staple food which seems to have palled on the taste of the family, especially of the children. At this time salmon were so abundant in the lake, that fishermen could stand on the beach and spear them. One night, Reynolds, the hunter, held the pine-knot torch while Garrett speared, and so great was their luck that, notwithstanding that there was only one other settler in the neighborhood Reynolds told Garrett not to mention that the fish were so abundant, lest others should wish to share their good fortune.

"The following is a well-authenticated statement of a "catch" which was doubtless a record breaker at the time when whitefish were plentiful in the lake. It occurred on an evening in July, 1857, when, as was the custom when a seine was to be hauled, men for miles around were gathered on the beach at Wellington. The owner of the seine, J. Rickerson Trumpour, had marshalled his men and the nets were in constant use until dawn, by which time forty thousand whitefish had been taken; the largest haul ever known to have been made at this particular place. W.H. Garrett, the grandson of Isaac, assisted on this memorable occasion, by taking out a boat and holding up the cork line of the seine, over which, the net being full, the fish were escaping. His share was to be all the fish he wanted; and he filled his boat to the number of about seven hundred.

"The Garrett brothers married sisters. Isaac married Sarah Carman, and Benjamin married Margaret Carman, for his second wife, but of this second marriage there was no issue.

"Beatrice Garrett, deceased daughter of Richard, and great-granddaughter of Isaac the Pioneer, married Peter Ferguson, who at present resides in Belleville. Mr. Ferguson's father, Donald, who was born in Scotland, married Helen McNichol. He came to Canada with his family in 1868, and began farming in Haliburton. Donald lived but a few years after reaching his new home. His children were Annie S. and Peter. The former married Wm. Menzies and settled in North Carolina, and had a family consisting of: William, Sarah, Helen, Kenneth, Charles, Edward and Annie. Peter Ferguson began his business career at the early age of nineteen years by entering the service of the Canadian Land and Emigration Company. Here he remained for six and one-half years, when he started for himself as a general merchant at Woodville, Ont. In 1878 he went to the Canadian North-West, where he carried on a general store, and later engaged in farming, which occupation he still continues, though not actively. He is the owner of two large farms in the North-West and a fine residence in Belleville, where a portion of his time each year is spent with his family."

Stephen:

"Genealogical List of the Bull Family of the County of Prince Edward, Ontario", Dr. A.C. Bowerman, 1904."

"The family of Stephen moved to Battle Creek, Michigan. They were married at the "Big White House" on the same day (Friday, 18th September, 1818) on which were married William GARRETT (brother of Phoebe) and Patience Bull, and Townsend Garrett and Sally Bowerman. That was an occasion not to be overlooked; it was an early "triple-alliance," and demanded ratification by the assembled neighbourhood, in the collective capacity of and old-times charivari. That event was authentically stated by "the oldest inhabitant" never to have been surpassed for the extravagant invention of furious fun and frolic. The vestibule Pullmans in which the newly contracted parties began their wedding tours consisted of heavy farm waggons without springs, and furnished with large waggon chairs. When these had been taken apart and replaced in proper shape upon the ground - for the charivaring party had placed them astride the barn roof - they were free to pursue their journey over the corduroy roads leading to their various residences near Wellington, then the township of Ameliasburg. "

1850: Family lived in Detroit, Michigan, USA.

The family moved to Battle Creek in 1863 (A.C. Bowerman).

The Annual Monitor for 1896, Quaker Published Memorials

"John T. Dorland was the son of John T. and Mary Ann Dorland, elders of West Lake Monthly Meeting, Canada. He was born in the village of Wellington, Ontario, on the 8th of the Third month, 1860. The youngest child of a family of seven, some of whom were grown up at the time of his birth, from his infancy he awakened a deep interest in those about him, and at an early age the impression was made upon his mother's heart that the Lord would call this one of her children to engage in His service as a Minister of the Gospel. The loving care of three grown-up sisters in his father's home had much to do with the moulding of his character, and his childhood became a time of seed-sowing that in after years brought forth an abundant increase.

"Amidst the beautiful surroundings and quiet of his native village, which is pleasantly situated upon the shores of Lake Ontario, he grew from childhood to youth, having at one time a strong desire to follow a literary career, but subsequently determining to engage in the study of law. Neither of these professions, however, were to be his life work. At a very tender age he manifested a deep interest in the Bible, and in the First-day school which he attended as a little child he was able, apparently with but little effort, to remember and repeat long passages of Scripture. But notwithstanding his many natural gifts, and the fact of his careful home training, he was soon made conscious of the need of having his heart opened to the Saviour's love., There were times when he felt he must surrender to these visitations of Divine love, and when he was under deep conviction; but unwillingness to trust fully, and a fear that if he were converted he would have to go abroad as a missionary, prevented his finding the rest and peace that come from God when the life is given up in whole-hearted surrender to Him. So the years passed until he was seventeen years of age, when the death of a beloved friend, his brother-in-law, Seburn Dorland, made a lasting impression upon him. This faithful servant of his Lord had come from the United States, hoping that the lake air would benefit his health; and his beautiful life and loving ministry were often afterwards spoken of by John Dorland as amongst the great blessings of his life. By the side of his open grave the silent prayer went up that his life might become such as his brother-in-law's had been - a prayer that has now had its gracious answer and remarkable fulfilment in the completed course of his own life, so full of the Divine blessing.

"Although these solemn calls and seasons of deep conviction had their marked influence, months passed before the light broke in and made John Dorland a new man in Christ Jesus. The desire to fit himself for the profession of his choice, the strong claims of his natural ambition to excel, and the day dreams of his boyhood, all had to be surrendered. There was before him no middle course. Christ must have all. Terrible though the ordeal seemed to all the pride of his buoyant young manhood, and sore the grief he felt to cause disappointment to some he loved, who shared the desire that he might follow the profession of his choice (in which doubtless he would have gained distinction), when the power of Divine grace brought the issues clearly home to his heart, his choice was made with a childlike trust, a singular steadfastness of purpose, and a single-hearted desire to be and to do all that God required of him. Humbly yielding to the divine will there came at once to his life much of the joyous and attractive power of grace, that made him such an honoured witness for his Lord. The work of his testimony began at once, and at Pickering College he was the means of influencing many of the students to become Christians, and "where," writes one of his friends of his boyhood, "he was admired by them for his straight-forward, upright Christian life."

"After leaving college John T. Dorland engaged in teaching for a time, but was soon called upon to relinquish this, as well as preparation for his chosen profession, and to go forth in the service of the Gospel. Great blessing attended even the very first of these journeys, and many conversations resulted. In the first neighbourhood visited, a meeting house where there had been no regular meeting was re-opened, and some time afterwards two further meetings were started in the same district. As the year 1881 was growing to a close, at the age of twenty-one, his gift to the ministry was acknowledged by his Monthly Meeting, and on the 18th of First month, 1882, he became a recorded minister.

"At this time an important change in his life took place. This was his marriage, on the 29th of Twelfth month, 1881, to Lavinia Hubbs, the daughter of William S. and Margaret Hubbs, of Bloomfield. Shortly before this John Dorland had accepted a business engagement with Elias Rogers, a Friend of Toronto, and in the newly -established meeting in that city, his ministry was continued and much blessed towards the building up and strengthening of the work that had been begun after the visit to Canada of Walter Morris. After residing for about a year in Toronto, John T. and Lavinia Dorland, with their infant daughter Margaret, removed to Brooklyn, U.S., which became their home for a couple of years. Here his time was fully taken up with his Gospel labours and visits to other Yearly Meetings, including his own in Canada. Visiting this in 1883 he met Isaac Sharp, Alfred Wright and other friends who were present from other Yearly Meetings. Already his character was distinguished by the exercise in large measure of the gracious influence of a controlled and spirit-filled life, which was the more manifest amidst the somewhat disturbed conditions that then existed in Canada; and already he had also begun to feel the burden of service for other lands. At this time an intimation came to him through one of the Friends attending the Yearly Meeting, of service that would be required of him over the sea, in which service he has since laid down his life.

"After leaving Brooklyn, where he had resided for a considerable time, he removed to Cleveland, Ohio, and found there, as elsewhere, that the work to which he was called fully occupied his time. Many were gathered to Christ through his faithful ministry, before the time came when it was made clear to him that he must visit England. Having obtained a minute for service here, he arrived in this country in time to attend in succession the Yearly Meetings of Dublin and London in the year 1888.

"For a couple of years John Dorland's family continued to reside in Wellington, Canada while he pursued his labours, visiting meetings, adult schools &c., throughout this country. A deepened interest in our own meetings, especially amongst our younger members, was the result of this labour that became apparent almost everywhere. To may also his ministry was a call to surrender to Christ, while to others it was an awakening to a more consecrated service. In the year 1889 his wife joined him for a short time in these labours, and he returned with her on a visit to his family in Canada.

"During this visit he attended Canada Yearly Meeting, in which he was appointed Clerk. Returning to England, he continued his labours under his minute from Canada Yearly Meeting, until early in the year 1890, when a trip he had long desired to make to the East was undertaken in company with J. Allen Baker. The journey extended to Egypt, Palestine, Syria, Constantinople and Athens, occupying several months, and proving one of the deepest interest to John Dorland. Not long after his return, he felt it right to remove his family from Canada to England, and for this purpose he again visited Canada at its next Yearly Meeting, which proved to be a larger meeting than had gathered for some years. It was no small trial for John Dorland to leave his aged parents and his home on this occasion, and it proved the last time he was to see the face of his father, as his decease had taken place before John Dorland's next return to Canada. But his call to England being clear, it was ever and added comfort to him in the prosecution of his work to know how freely and fully his parents had given him up for it, and how prayerfully they followed him in it.

"In a letter from Wellington, just before he sailed with his family, he wrote - "They want me to come to Cleveland, but I can see nothing but England!... This is home, and only His call could take me from it. My dear parents are so sweet about our going... For all I dread to leave, there is such a joy in the prospect of taking up my work in England. I trust God is preparing me for it in a larger measure also. Oh for His power in saving and sanctifying."

"It was the autumn of the year 1890 that John Dorland brought his family to England, settling at "Densbrook", Willesden Junction, London, which continued to be his permanent home until the time of his decease. The range of his work was now extended, taking in a largely increased number of engagements in connection with adult schools and mission centres, while at the same time continuing the specific work for which he had obtained his minute from Canada Yearly Meeting. When he had fully completed what he felt to be required of him under this minute, for a couple of years he employed part of his time under a business engagement with Joseph Baker & Sons of London. This work was not allowed to interfere with his continuing his gospel labours, for which he was free to absent himself at any time; and series of meetings, conventions, addresses, etc., continued to largely occupy him. It was under this engagement that he went to Chicago in the year 1893, remaining for several months during the time of the Exhibition. While thus engaged in business, he there found acceptable service with the Chicago Friends' Meeting, as expressed by a very cordial minute of that Meeting. During this visit to America he also had the opportunity of visiting New York Yearly Meeting.

"Upon returning from England his whole time was again devoted to religious and philanthropic work. When the Friends' First-day School Association was re-organized, and it became necessary to have a Secretary able to devote considerable time to the work, attending Annual Meetings, Conferences, etc., John T. Dorland accepted this post. During the last year and a quarter of his life he was also Editor of "One and All," the magazine of the Association, being also a frequent contributor to the "Friend," and for a considerable time responsible for the issue of the Friends' Christian Fellowship Union Monthly Circular; and being actively engaged in promoting the establishment of branches and strengthening the work of that Union, his time was very closely occupied, and much of it necessarily spent away from home.

"In every department his work was characterized by forcible clearness, sound judgement, and rich spiritual power; and his life in a remarkable manner exemplified the effective influence of the large-hearted Christian, faithful to his convictions as a thorough Friend. He felt that we could put no limitations upon the work and operation of the Holy Spirit, and "magnified his office," or, as expressed in the revised version, like Paul, he "glorified his ministry."

"About seven months before his death he took an extended journey to the East on religious service, in company with his wife and Lucy E. and Mary E. Mouncey. This trip but deepened. his interest in Egypt, Palestine, and the countries he had visited before, and his sympathies were greatly increased and feelings aroused on behalf of the Armenians. Many interesting addresses were given by him on the Eastern lands.

"Few who ever came in contact with John Dorland but were impressed with his only too rare combination of profound earnestness with a bright, joyous, and hopeful Christian character. The news of his death after a few days' illness, passed as a great shock, not only throughout this country, but wherever he had been known.

"John T. Dorland left a widow and four children - two sons and two daughters - one of the latter being born in England. In the Eighth month last Lavinia H. Dorland and her family returned to Wellington, Ontario, Canada.

"It was from attendance at the last and most encouraging Annual Meeting of the Friends' First-day School Association, held at Bristol, that John T. Dorland returned to London with a slight cold; and attending the Quarterly Meeting at Devonshire House, took a further chill. Seeming to be partially recovered he proceeded to Manchester to attend some meetings of the Friends' Christian Fellowship Union and the Byrom Street Adult School. Although more ill than he appeared, he felt that he must attend the first of these - the F.C.F.U. Meeting, into which the whole of his concern seemed to centre. The meeting was a time of very manifest blessing and outpouring of the Holy Spirit. John Dorland spoke with great power, faithfully delivering the message committed to him; and the address given in that last meeting will long be remembered by many besides those who were privileged to be present. Within an hour after its conclusion he was prostrated in much pain and suffering of the late William Brockbank, "Brockhurst," Didsbury, near Manchester, and was never able to rise again. He was joined by his wife, and a day or two later by J. Allen Baker, from London. The most skilful physicians and trained nurses were in attendance night and day, and every possible means that generous hospitality and tender solicitude could provide were freely employed to save his life, but all in vain. One week from the time of his last meeting, as the sun of a new day was breaking in through the trees in front of the mansion where he lay, he peacefully passed to his eternal rest. His wish, expressed some years before, that he might die in harness was granted; and in the hours of consciousness his expressions of peace and joy in the prospect of being with his Lord were very precious to those who heard them. No dying words were needed to witness the reality and blessedness of a spirit-filled life such as his; and the self-denial and singular devotion which characterised its entire course will long remain a monument and testimony to the praise of Him who has now called His faithful servant from the service of earth to the higher service of Heaven."

An interesting story appeared in the Chico press after his death:

Hubbs' Dying Statement

Chico, California, July 27. - Cornelius Hubbs, who was shot by his rival, Raymond Bierce, yesterday, who afterward committed suicide, died today. Mrs. Hubbs' wound is not serious.

Before dying Hubbs mad an ante-mortem statement to the district attorney. He said that when he visited Mrs. Barney's house with his wife yesterday, he found Bierce there. Bierce abused them and tried to quarrel. Hubbs and wife started to go, when Bierce, who a moment before had stepped into an adjoining room reappeared and fired, the ball striking Hubbs. Hubbs returned the fire, and four shots were fired by each man. Hubbs told his wife to leave and went out the door himself. When he found his wife was not with him, he returned, and hearing two more shots in the room, broke open the door, as Bierce had locked. He grappled with Bierce and threw him to the floor. Hubbs states that Mrs. Barney made no effort to stop Bierce's shooting, but tried to get him (Hubbs) to let Bierce up, although the latter had been thrown to the floor.
