1. Abraham Hyatt #70515, b. 11 September 1769 in New York State?, d. 09 December 1836, occupation Farmer, religion Society of Friends (Quaker).

A number of the settlers in Prince Edward County had originally lived in Dutchess County, New York. That county extended east from the Hudson River to the Massachusetts and Connecticut borders.

Is this a son of Abraham HYATT and Sarah RYDER from Dutchess County? That couple had eight children, of whom only two have yet been located.

The most likely person is the Abraham HYATT who is listed in the 1790 Beekman, Dutchess County census. That listing shows a man and woman, over 16 years of age, and a boy and girl, under 16... these are likely Caleb, born about 1788 and Phoebe, born about 1879.

He is possibly a brother of Samuel HYATT, born about 1760 in the same area (see genealogy hya80379.pdf). That branch carried on until 1940 in Dutchess County, with the line dying out at about that time. And how does this family connect with Nathan HYATT, whose grave appears in the Disciple Cemetery at West Lake. See that genealogy here: hya100749.pdf

The Hyatt's originally lived in Nine Partners, Dutchess County, The Little Nine Partners Patent was the final patent (1706) granted in Dutchess County. It was located in the north-east part of the county, and included the present-day towns of Milan, Pine Plains, Stanford and North East. On the north was Columbia County, on the south by the Great Nine Partners Patent (1697).

Based on HYATT name and birthplace of New York State in the 1851 Prince Edward County census; I expect there are other family members, including Caleb HYATT (born c 1788) resident in the County.

Further research using the available 18th century records of Dutchess County will provide more insight into the relationships of those early families.

Some additional research (2018) into Abraham HYATT (HAIGHT) finds that he was listed on the enrolment papers of patriotic men in Dutchess County prior to the Revolutionary War.

He married Catherine Leavens #73572, 28 February 1786 in New Hackensack, Dutchess County, New York State, USA, b. 06 March 1760 in Nine Partners, Dutchess County, New York State, (daughter of Peter Leavens #70956 and Catherine Caston #70957), d. 26 February 1829 in Prince Edward County?, Ontario.

From "Pioneer Life on the Bay of Quinte", 1904; pages 39 - 40

"Thomas J. Howard, son of Eratus (sic) Howard and Catherine Demorest, left home, at the age of fifteen years, to serve his apprenticeship as a harness maker in Wellington, where he remained five years, and in the fall of 1850 started in business for himself in Frankford. The following spring he married Miss Harriet Huyck. After five years in the harness business, owing to failing health, he sold out. On recovering his health, Mr. Howard opened a dry goods store in Frankford; and in 1870 removed his business to Wellington, where he still trades and prospers - having been in business for fifty-four years without experiencing "either fire or failure". In 1858 Mr. Howard was appointed a Justice of the Peace for the County of Hastings. The years following were marked by much litigation consequent on the enforcement of the Dunkin Act; Mr. Howard made it an unvarying rule to listen to no complaints from drunken men, and always counselled settlement of trifling disputes without recourse to the courts.

"At the age of 17 years Mr. Howard became a member of the Methodist Church - was chosen class leader in 1851 - and has been a member of the Quarterly Board almost continuously for the last half century. In 1903, when he spoke of retiring on account of infirmities, he was by a unanimous vote elected a life member of the Board."

"Philip MacDonald was a Life-Long Resident of West Point."

"Philip McDonald (sic) died at "Lakeland", early yesterday morning. While he had been confined to bed for only two days, he had been in poor health for a year and last summer suffered a slight stroke.

"Mr. McDonald was a life-long resident of West Point, the McDonald's being early settlers of that section. His father was Alexander MacDonald and his mother, Lydia J. Abby. His grandfather was Daniel MacDonald, one of nine sons of the pioneer Daniel MacDonald, who originally came from Scotland, from which country they fled at the time of the massacre of Glencoe (see note below). The nine sons and two daughters were born in New Brunswick and they emigrated to Prince Edward County and settled in Hallowell directly after the war of 1812.

"Mr. McDonald was widely known as proprietor of the summer hotel, Lakeland, which he operated with his son, Norman. He had for many years catered to summer guests and previous to building the hotel and cottages, he had used his farm home for this purpose. He did not take a very active part in public affairs, but was a good friend and neighbor. He was a member of the Church of Christ at West Lake,

"Mr. McDonald is survived by his wife, and an only child, Norman, at home. His sister, (Alice M.) died at Wellington two years ago, and his brother, Allen, died last summer. Another brother, Richard, died when young."

Extract from an undated newspaper clipping (Ogdensburg):

"When Flames Destroy Home"

"Neighbors Save 5 Before Cut Off By Fire"

"Ogdensburg - (AP) - Three children lost their lives here yesterday when fire swept the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Hyatt.

"The victims, all children of the Hyatts, were Anne, 12; William, 10; and Patricia, 8.

"The Hyatts, Elijah Hyatt, grandfather of the victims, and two other children, Marie, 14, and Helen, 7, were rescued. Firemen fought unsuccessfully to get through the flames to rooms where the children were sleeping.

"John Hyatt, uncle of the victims, who lived next door, discovered the fire and turned in the alarm. He and neighbors raised ladders before firemen arrived and rescued the parents and others.

"After the blaze was quenched the three victims were taken from the house, but were declared dead before a hospital was reached. Coroner's Physician. Stacy said the deaths were caused by asphyxiation.

"The fire occurred a short distance from the home of Frank Petrilli where a similar fire took the lives of five children."
