

Generation One

1. John Jaques #167072, b. c. 1762 in England.<sup>1</sup> .

Surname appears as "JACKES" on son John's 1782 birth record.

Note that while there are large numbers of descendants from this couple in Ontario, there is another John JAQUES, wife Margaret, who lived in Westmoreland, England, and whose family also immigrated to Ontario. They may be related.

Children:

2. i. John Jaques #73538 b. 13 September 1782.

Generation Two

2. John Jaques #73538, b. 13 September 1782 in Hinderwell, Yorkshire, England,<sup>3</sup> baptized 11 October 1782 in Hinderwell, Yorkshire, England,<sup>4</sup> occupation Farmer in Cramahe, d. 03 October 1850 in Colborne, Northumberland County, Ontario,<sup>3</sup> buried in Salem Cemetery, Cramahe, Northumberland Township, Ontario.<sup>3</sup> .

Inasmuch as there are several "pedigrees" of the Yorkshire Jaques/Jacques/Jakes Family on-line, some going as far back as Henry II in England, it is apparent that the English pronunciation of the name, at least in the centuries after the Norman conquest was "JAKES or "JACKS"..

There are several "JACQUES/JAQUES" individuals with families in Cramahe as evidenced by the 1851 census. Most of these individuals have now been linked and verified as part of this extensive family in Ontario, and subsequently, in western Canada. Spellings within this genealogy reflect both the "JAQUES" and "JACQUES" spellings of the name, although by the 20th century, the "JAQUES" spelling was more prevalent.

My interest in the family came from the disposition of the "Jacques" Cottage in Block H. West Point, Hallowell Township, Prince Edward County to the Ontario Parks system. That is now a summer rental for visitors to the Park, and provides easy access to some of the best kite and wave surfing on eastern Lake Ontario.

Jacques Family                      Pioneer Life on the Bay of Quinte, 1904; (pages 458 - 460)

"John Jacques emigrated to Canada from England in 1831 and finally purchased a farm in Cramahe, on which he built a tannery. About three years later he found himself in a position to send to England for his family. This farm and tannery John Jacques ran successfully for many years, and until his death. James Jacques, his son, was born in Strathy, Yorkshire, England, in 1813, had nearly completed his course in medicine when his father's peremptory summons called him to Canada and prevented him from finishing the course. He did not, however, take kindly to farming and a couple of years after coming to Cramahe, went to Consecon and entered the employ of William Whittier, general merchant, as clerk. Young Jacques had been well educated in England, was ambitious and anxious to get ahead in the world, and we soon find him running a general merchandise business in Consecon, on his own account. He became a well-known man in the community, and carried on this business successfully for many years, and until he retired from active work. Mr. Jacques married Mary A. Sherman, who came to Canada from the United States. He died February 23, 1890, aged seventy-seven years; his wife died in 1893 aged seventy-one years.

"Of their sons, John W. died at the age of sixteen years while attending Victoria College. Dr. Clark W. died at the age of thirty-three in Cincinnati, Ohio, where he was a practising physician. Dr. W.S. Jacques was born at Consecon, Prince Edward County, in September, 1847. He was educated at the Grammar School, Consecon, and when a young man went to Cincinnati, Ohio, where he graduated at the College of Physicians and Surgeons, and also graduated at the Electric (sic) Institute, St. Louis. After practicing his profession at Cincinnati for about seventeen years, and engaging in several successful business enterprises, he returned to Trenton, where he built one of the finest residences in town, and has since lived practically a retired life, spending his leisure time in looking after his investments. Among his extensive real estate possessions is the Temple Building, on Front Street, perhaps the largest block in town. Dr. Jacques is one of Trenton's most prominent and widely known citizen. He is President of the St. George's Society, a Director of the Central Ontario Railway, is a Magistrate, a prominent Mason and a member of several other fraternal societies. He has been Chairman of the Board of Education, and was Mayor of Trenton for three years, it was during his term of office that the canning factories, which have proved such valuable industries in the town, were secured.

"Dr. Jacques is a public-spirited man in all that the term implies. He takes an active interest in the Trent Valley water way, and is optimistic in his views of the future of Trenton; and the fact that he has large investments in Trenton shows that these views are born of sincerity. D. Jacques married Sarah Whittier of Consecon, and they have one son, Dr. Theron W. Jacques."
