

Generation One

1. Andrus Onderdonk #174015, b. 07 June 1781 in New York State,¹ d. 21 June 1843 in Sodus, Wayne County, New York.¹

"Genealogy of the Onderdonk Family in America", compiled by Elmer Onderdonk of Philadelphia, Published by Andrew K. Onderdonk of New York, 1910; page 86. This appears to be the definitive volume of the early family history, and is available online at ancestry.com. There does not appear to be a printed version available. From that publication, it appears that the earliest ancestor of the family was Andries (Adrianse) Onderdonk, born before 1653, and who lived subsequently at New Castle, Delaware, dying in 1686 at Jamaica, Long Island. His married Maria Van Der Vliet, and all Onderdonks in North America descend from this couple.

There is a lot of speculation as to the earlier Dutch ancestors of this family that is addressed in this book. Much is simply that, speculation.

My purpose in providing these Prince Edward County compilations is to find where the earlier County settlers were born, and their immediate antecedents, not the huge number of descendants have no connection with the County. If you are interested in the New York Onderdonk families, then I recommend you start with the above-mentioned volume. There is a lot of information!

It's worth noting that there were marital connections between the Onderdonk and Wiltse families as early as 1730 in Long Island, as well as Onderdonk and Bogart families in Tappan in 1788. Both those surnames will be familiar to any researcher of Prince Edward County genealogy, as will the Demorest family, that also has roots in Rockland County, New York.

This Onderdonk branch of the family lived first in Kakiat, Rockland County (just north of New York City) before moving to Sodus, which was first settled around 1809. Andrus' sister, Maria, married Stephen GURNEE and also settled in Sodus.

He married Maria Smith #174016, 11 January 1806, b. 1788, d. 1864.
