Historical Atlas of Hastings and Prince Edward Counties, 1878; H. Belden & Co., Toronto.

"Daniel Pettit, J.P. of Hillier is of U.E. descent , his paternal grandfather being a Loyalist from Long Island, New York who served in the Royal army. On the establishment of the Independence of the Colonies he removed to Canada, being still quite young, and settled on West Lake in Hallowell. He married a daughter of John Platt, another U.E. Loyalist and had a family of five sons and five daughters, of whom James, the second son had six sons and six daughters.

"Daniel, the second son of this family, was born in Hallowell in 1820. When nine years old his father removed to lot 5, 3rd concession, Hillier, where Daniel remained till in his twenty fourth year, when he removed to Lot 2, same range, where he still lives.

He was married in 1842 to Mary Anne, daughter of Jacob Osterhoat (sic). Mrs. Pettit died in 1866, leaving four of a family. Mr. Pettit subsequently married Catherine, daughter of Simon Delong, and has one daughter by the last marriage.

"His grandfather drew two hundred acres of land from Government, for himself and each of his children, as U.E. Loyalists.

"Farming is Mr. Pettit's occupation. His place contains two hundred acres of superior and highly cultivated land, with fine houses, barns, and buildings of every description, suitable to carrying on a first-class farm in a first-class manner. He spares no pains nor expense in improving his stock, and now owns some very fine short-horn cattle, pure Leicester sheep, and a superior class of roadsters and draught-horses.

"He is the oldest Justice of the Peace in the township, and has held various municipal office and positions of public trust for a period extending over the whole of his life since arriving at mature years.

"Nor is the military spirit of his ancestors degenerating in him, as we find that before he was eighteen years of age, he volunteered in Captain Wilkins' Prince Edward Cavalry, and served till the close of the rebellion.

"Mr. Pettit has been what is popularly known as a successful man in his own business; and what is better still, he is highly respected and universally esteemed by the entire community."
