1. John Spafford #102718, b. c 1612 in England.

Most of the pre-1784 information about this family has been transcribed from the book "John Spofford and Elizabeth Scott, who emigrated, in 1638, from Yorkshire, England and settled at Rowley, Essex County Massachusetts."

Compiled by Dr. Jeremiah Spafford, of Groveland , Massachusetts, and appended to by his daughter Aphia T. Spafford, this genealogy was published in Boston, 1888.

It's a massive tome, 521 pages. The concentration of genealogies here are only of the Spafford families that emigrated to Prince Edward County, and nearby regions.

The surname is generally spelled "SPAFFORD" in later generations, and in Prince Edward County. If anyone needs information of the American branches of this family, I suggest viewing the book at ancestry.com.

As with other genealogies compiled on these pages by John A. Brebner, Ottawa, this is very much a work in progress. Please contact me directly for errors, omissions and corrections at: john.brebner@brebner.com.

He married Elizabeth Scott #102719 (daughter of Thomas Scott #102720 and Elizabeth (unidentified) #102721).

Elizabeth:

Elizabeth Scott

"She was of Ipswich and doubtless a daughter of Thomas Scott and his wife Elizabeth, who came over in the ship "Elizabeth" in 1634, when nine years old. If so, she was thirteen years younger than her husband. The identity is confirmed by the repetition in her own family of the names of her parents, brothers, and sisters, Elizabeth, Thomas, Hannah, Sarah, Mary."

from Savage's General Dictionary

"Thomas and Elizabeth Scott, each 40 years of age, came in the "Elizabeth" of Ipswich, Captain William Andrews, the latter part of April, 1634, with their children, Elizabeth, 9 years old, Abigail, 7 years old, Thomas, 6 years old, and Isaac Mixer, 4 years old."

from Massachusetts Historical Collections, Third Series, Vol. X., p. 141.

"This Elizabeth Scott (mother of Mrs. John Spofford) subsequently married the Rev. Ezekiel Rogers (probably not the one who settled in Rowley, but a relative). She survived Rogers, and was his widow in 1683.

"John Spofford, as it appears from an affidavit, was fifty years of age in 1662, hence born in 1612; his will was made October 7, 1678, and probated 6th, 9th month, 1678, his wife and son Thomas joint executors.

"It is related that from lack of devotional feeling, or want of confidence in the piety of her husband, - undoubtedly the latter, - she on at least one occasion continued her work while he was conducting family worship, and that, in making her the subject of one of his petitions, he very unhandsomely characterized her by an epithet quite inconsistent with conjugal tenderness.

"Divers peccadilloes or eccentricities ascribed to him by tradition, - notably, taking a young son on a coveted excursion tightly tied in a bag,  - leave to later generations scant room for doubt concerning which was the greater "sinner" of the two.

"The pair are the progenitors of widely scattered and very important branches of the family, many representatives of which has become conspicuously eminent in political, financial, literary, and social life."

Moses Spafford

"He was one of the pioneer settlers of Claremont, New Hampshire. Thou the bride's name is unknown, the following story of the marriage ceremony will be of interest:

"Rev. Bulkley Olcott was established in Charlestown, N.H., before the settlement of the townships on the north and west, and he was often called to attend weddings and funerals at a great distance. In such cases guides were sent to conduct him to the places and return with him, as there were no roads, and he would be in danger of being lost in the intricacies of the forest. There is a tradition that he was thus conducted to solemnize the first marriage in Claremont.

"Moses Spafford had built a log-house, and brought to it his intended. It was a very rude structure, with a stationary pine table and no furniture but as such as Moses had made, and the utensils for housekeeping were not many or elegant, yet with the superadded ides that Moses was to be her constant companion, all was pronounced very good, and Moses went to Charlestown to bring up Mr. Olcott to perform the marriage service.

When about starting, the lady reminded him that they had nothing to drink in the house, and that as Mr. Olcott might be faint on his arrival, it might be well to take a bottle and get a pint at Charlestown. This was done, and Mr. Alcott on his arrival was treated to a generous glass of black-strap. He then solemnized the marriage, and after refreshments, was reconducted to his home. The earlier issue of this marriage was the first white child born in Claremont, to which the parents gave the good old name of Elijah."
