 Verify children of each wife... **

Historical Atlas of Hastings and Prince Edward Counties, 1878; H. Belden & Co., Toronto.

"William F. Weese, now living on Lot 89, 1st concession of Ameliasburg, is a grandson - and one of a very large number of descendants - of John W. Weese, who came into the country and settled, first in Adolphustown, with a family of one daughter and three sons, viz., John, Francis, and Henry, the latter of whom was the father of the subject of this sketch.

"Old Mr. Weese was of German extraction, his ancestors being among the Knickerbockers who first gave Manhattan a "local habitation and a name". He appears to have been a man past middle age at the time of his settlement in Canada, as his eldest son John had already served two terms in the Royal American contingent of the British army during the revolutionary war; and he himself was a captain in the secret service of the King's army. Captain Hogle, a cousin of his, and an officer of the British regulars, was killed at Bunker Hill, and buried by the Hon. Col. Wilkins' father, a personal friend, then an officer of the same regiment. Some of the Hogles afterwards fled to Canada to avoid persecution at the hands of the victorious Continentals, and the name is now a familiar one along the mainland shore of the Bay of Quinte.

"It will be surmised from the above record that Herkimer County, New York, was too hot a place for the Weeses after the American got the upper hand. They saved their lives only by abandoning valuable possessions, and taking a hurried departure to Canada. The old man and family came to Adolphustown a little before the close of the war; and on the 26th of November of the same years (1783), crossed the Bay, and located and settled upon the lot where his grandson William F. Weese, now lives, being without doubt, the first actual settler in what is now Prince Edward County.

"His son John went at the same time - or very shortly thereafter, directly across the Bay, and settled on the main land, in the township of Sidney; and it is claimed by those acquainted by the facts, that he was the first actual settler in the present county of Hastings. He removed some years subsequently to the site of the present village of Stirling, in Hastings County, and became the first settler in the limits of the township of Rawdon.

"Old Mr. Weese, his son Henry, and grandson William F. have lived from the first settlement, to the present time, or till the date of their several deaths, on the same farm located in 1783.

"William F. Weese has been engaged extensively, and with varying success, in commercial pursuits, and in the lumber trade, but farming is now his chief occupation. He owns and works 550 acres of land, a large portion of which is of a very superior description.

"The military and patriotic spirit proverbial in the descendants of the original Loyalists, was not wanting in Mr. Weese. When the Rebellion broke out, he enlisted in Captain Flagler's company of the "Queen's Own", and stood guard at York when Lount and Matthews were hung. When discharged by expiration of rime, he again enlisted in Lt.-Col. (then Captain) Wilkins' Horse, and was engaged in despatch bearing, and similar service, till the disbandment of the forces, on the establishment of peace.

"Though considerably beyond three score years, Mr. Weese is still a strong, hearty, active man, and of a long-lived race - nearly all of the name having lived to an exceptionally great age.

"He has served in various public capacities, having been Councillor or Deputy Reeve of his native township for eleven consecutive years. He has also held a number of official appointments in the militia, and has been thrice appointed to the Commission of the Peace, a position for which he has thus far declined to qualify."
