"Squire Daniel Wright, the pioneer of this family in Prince Edward County, was born in the city of London, England in 1741, and according to the old record in the Crown Lands Department he was a sergeant in the 53rd Regiment in the British service during the war of the American Revolution and was present at the battle before Quebec when Montgomery was killed. He settled in Marysburg in 1784. He was commissary officer for this township and was subsequently appointed magistrate and later registrar, which positions he held for upward of thirty years. He was also Lieutenant-Colonel in the Prince Edward Militia. Squire Wright appears to have been supreme in authority in Marysburg, even before he was appointed magistrate, and it is said that the soldiers were wont to come to him to settle any differences that might arise among them."

They had a large family, including six sons, to-wit, James, Ephraim, Matthew, Escott, Samuel and Joseph; and several daughters, Samantha, Frances, Emma and Augusta. Joseph Wright

"Edwards Merrill, of Picton, Barrister-at-Law, is the grandson of Samuel Merrill, who came from Connecticut during the first years of the present century, and settled in Kingston, where he engaged in mercantile pursuits with considerable success.

"Edwards Merrill was born in Picton, September 1841. He was educated here, and studied law in the office of this place. He was admitted as an attorney in 1865; called to the bar in 1867; and has practised here ever since. He married, in 1866, Carrie, daughter of the late Paul Wright, and grand-daughter of the late Dr. J.B. Chamberlain, both widely known and highly respected citizens of Napanee; and the present family consists of three children.

"Like his father, he is of a military turn, having been for a number of years, and until its disbandment, Captain of No. 2 Company, 16th Regiment.

"As a lawyer. Mr. Merrill is regarded as a sound counsel, and a rising man in his profession; while, as a gentleman, he commands the respect of all who have the pleasure of his acquaintance."

findagrave.com, Hough Scrapbooks, 1902

"The old Township of Adolphustown and indeed this whole county, has lost one of its oldest and best known native residents in the death of Henry Allison, which occurred at his residence, the old family homestead, the 11 inst. He was born in the old family homestead, which has been occupied by the Allison family ever since the first UE Loyalists came to this county in 1784, and lived on that well-known farm the entire seventy-seven years of his life.

"After the American Revolution the family, which was a large one, got very widely scattered in the States and Canada. In the Maritime provinces, as well as pretty generally throughout Ontario, the family is now well represented. The deceased was kindly and neighborly gentleman, a man of more than ordinary industry, intelligence, information, and ability, always deeply interested in the early history of the Midland District and Adolphustown.

"He was a son of the late Joseph Allison, J.P., for many years a prominent citizen, taking an active interest in the moral, educational and religious progress of this county. He was a man of staunch and liberal views. His surviving brothers are David W., ex- M.P., and formerly a Warden of our County Council; Cyrus, of Parma, also a Warden of this County Council; Joseph, and ex-Reeve of Adolphustown; Edward, Port Perry. Surviving sisters are Mrs. Rev. Briden of Kingston; Mrs. Lewis Brown of Adolphustown; Mrs. Nelson Mallory, of Mallory's Point, Adolphustown.

"He married a daughter, years ago of the late Solomon Wright, of Fredericksburgh, and their two sons, Harry of Conway, and Fred, who resides on the old homestead, survive him. There are also a large number of respected and influent relatives well-known throughout this county. It may be here remarked that Mr. Allison took considerable pride over the fact that there stood on his farm probably the oldest barn in the county, having been built by a Mr. Secord, a carpenter, who soon after was interested in the building of the Major VanAlstine grist mill before 1800 at Glenora, which was said to have been the first flour mill in Prince Edward county.

"Few families have occupied so long a prominent position in municipal and political affairs, in church and educational matters than that of which the deceased was a respected member."

"Joseph Wright married Jane E. Storms, and settled on lot 74, Lake Side, North Marysburg. He was by trade a master carpenter and built many of the best houses and barns to be found in North and South Marysburgh, and adjoining townships. His skill led to his employment at other places, including the State of New York, but after his marriage he devoted himself principally to farming, although he built the residence now occupied by his widow and son, Vincent Wright. He died universally respected in 1889, and the farm is now managed by his son Vincent, who had taken over the main charge of it before his father's death. A daughter, Etta Wright, married Thomas Vincent.

"His son James married Ann Harrison and settled within the limits of North Marysburg. Among his descendants may be mentioned the late George Sills Wright, of whom the Belleville "Daily Sun," in its issue of September 17, 1894, says:

"He was esteemed by all as a man of kindly heart, moral worth and intellectual brilliancy, whom the city mourns. Dr. Wright, who was a late principal of the high school, died at the comparatively early age of fifty-four years. He was the son of Daniel J. Wright, who predeceased him by a week only, dying at the advanced age of ninety-four years. Daniel Wright was a power in Prince Edward County; and for many years a County Councillor in North Marysburg township. The sons are James and Melbourne, farmers; Frank, a carpenter, at present residing in Picton, and Dr. John Wright, a physician in Picton.

"George Sills Wright, Ph.D., was born at Prinyer fifty-six years ago. He was of United Empire Loyalist extraction. His early education was received at the rural schools of his native township in Prince Edward. He received his preliminary academic instruction at the Newburgh Academy, and matriculated at Victoria University, Cobourg, and spent three years of his art course and graduated at the University of Toronto. in addition to this he completed a civil engineering course in New York. He filled the chair of English literature and modern languages at Albert College, Belleville, remaining at this institution fifteen year. Probably the great prosperity and popularity of that institute is largely due to the unselfish and assiduous efforts put forth by him in those uncertain days of its inception. During his connection with Albert College he was given leave of absence, during which time he travelled extensively in Europe, and while abroad received the degree of Ph.D. at Leipsic (sic), Germany Upon resigning the chair of modern languages at Albert, in 1883, he became principal of the Belleville high school.

"As a society man Dr. Wright was exceedingly popular and prominent. He was Eminent Preceptor of King Baldwin Preceptory, and a member of Chapter, which is the highest order in Masonry. He was also a Past Master of Belleville Lodge, A.F. & A.M. He was an Odd Fellow as well, being Past Noble Grand of Mizpah Lodge, No. 127. He was Past Chieftain, Sons of Scotland, and Past President of the St. Andrew's Society. He was also one of the organizers and Past presidents of the old Native Canadian Society, at present extinct. In addition to these he was one of the directors of the Belleville Institute and Library Association and an honorary member of the Philharmonic Society. In religion he was a Methodist, an attendant at the Bridge Street Church, and a member of the Tabernacle Sunday school."

"Perhaps one of the most influential and public-spirited citizens of North Marysburgh is Mr. Melbourne Wright, a grandson of James Wright and great-grandson of the Pioneer, who resides in the neighborhood of Prinyer. Mr. Wright is known by his intimates as "Mell," and to the passing stranger always proves to be a "good Samaritan." In politics, as in everything else, he is independent and liberal.

"A man well read, and familiar with the main public issues of the day, Mr. Wright takes a pleasure in his life's work and can show visitors a handsome avenue of beautiful and symmetrical maples of a good size that he planted with his own hands. The loss of his loved wife, who died April 3, 1887, was a sore trial to him, as was also the death of his brother George Sills Wright, of whom he speaks with much feeling.

"Among relics of a time now passed, and of which it is a constant reminder, Mr. Wright shows a cedar sill in his driving house that was a port in a block-house at Prinyer's Cove, erected about the time of the American War of Independence".
